Membrane 36—cont.

possessions thereto pertaining, and a pasture or close called Weldonyngham and a well therein called Darnynghamwell, a dyke called Darnynghamdyk running from the said well to the water of Hull, and all lands and possessions between the said dyke to the midst of the water of Humbre on the south, and from the well and dyke to the liberty of Kyngeston towards the east, be from Easter next separated from the county of York and be of the county of Kyngeston; and that all executions of writs, commands and warrants whatsoever touching the premises belong to the said town. Grant also to the mayor and burgesses that they may elect two coroners instead of one, as hitherto, and that, after the death of John, duke of Exeter, and Henry his son, the mayor and aldermen may elect an admiral within the county of Kyngeston and the town of Drypole and through the whole water of Humbre; and licence for the mayor and burgesses to acquire in mortmain a spring or divers springs within the limits of their said county and to bring water thence by leaden subterranean pipes and other means to the said town and to repair the same when need be.

By K.

April 14. Licence for Margaret, late the wife of John, duke of Somerset, tenant in chief, and Leo de Wellys, knight, to intermarry.

By K. etc.

April 14. Presentation of John Cokkes, clerk, to the church of Witteney, in the diocese of Lincoln, void by the death of William Estcourte and in the king’s gift by reason of the temporalities of the see of Winchester being in the king’s hands.

By K. etc.

April 15. Licence for the prior and convent of the church of St. Swithin, Winchester, to elect a bishop in the room of Henry, deceased.

[Fœdera.]

By K. etc.

April 14. Grant to John Langton, elect of St. Davids, of a fine (multivaram) due to the king by the death of Henry, cardinal and bishop of Winchester, to wit, a horse, a saddle, a bridle, a cup, a ewer (lavocrum), a ring, a hood or mantle, a hat (pilium) and a pack of hounds, to the value of 100 marks, answering to the king for any surplus.

By K. etc.

March 26. Grant for life to the king’s serjeant, Edmund Ilungerford, knight, king’s carver, of all the lands and goods of Robert Cappec, forfeit to the king because he withdrew from the realm through fear of arrest for suspicion of treason, wheresoever the lands be without Kent and the goods without Devon.

By K. etc.

April 19. Grant for life to the king’s serjeant, Geoffrey Williams, page of the kitchen, of the office of chief carpenter of the king’s works of Caermerthen and Cardigan in South Wales, to hold himself or by deputy with the usual wages, fees and profits.

By p.s. etc.

Feb. 8. The like to the king’s esquire, Thomas Broun, of the stewardship of the lordships of Myllton and Merden, co. Kent, after the decease of Humphrey, duke of Gloucester, to hold himself or by deputy, and of 20л. yearly of fee from the revenues of the lordships.

By p.s. etc.