1447. Dec. 16. Grant to John Davy of 10 marks yearly from the customs and subsidies in the port of Ipswich from Michaelmas last, until he have other recompense of the yearly value of 10l. in an office or otherwise for life.

1448. Jan. 1. Commission to William Gervey to purvey as many horses as shall be necessary for the king's saddle (cella) and for the king's coach (carra) and other carriages, by due valuation between him and four good men of any town, where such horses shall be, for reasonable payment to be made by the master of the king's horses.

Jan. 12. Grant for life to the king's serjeant, Thomas Ryngston, clerk in the office of the engrosser of the Exchequer, for good service for many years without reward or fece, of the office of secondary clerk in the said office, to receive and allot all allowable tallies in the Exchequer, to hold himself or by a clerk or deputy, with the usual fees, wages, customs and profits.

1447. Nov. 12. Grant to William Beaufitz, in payment of a sum of 198l. 9s. 1d., whereof 155l. 2s. 5d. are due to him by 26 tallies levied at the receipt of the Exchequer for Roger Fenys, knight, late treasurer of the household, for the expenses of the household, and delivered to William by Roger, and 100l. are due to him by a like tally for William Suthwell, esquire, and delivered to him by William Suthwell for a loan to that amount, and 100l. are due by another like tally for William Galway and likewise delivered for a loan, and 33l. 6s. 8d. are due by another tally levied for queen Katharine and delivered in satisfaction of divers debts, and 200l. are due by four bills assigned at the said receipt on Roger Fenys for the expenses of the household and directed to James, lord of Audeley, chamberlain of South Wales, and delivered to William by Roger, by force of which bills and tallies he has not obtained payment of the said whole sum,—of 200l. yearly from all customs and subsidies in the port of Southampton, 100l. yearly from the like in the port of Ipswich, 300l. yearly from the customs and subsidies on wools, hides and woollens in the port of London, 200l. yearly from the subsidies of tunnage and poundage in the same, 100l. yearly from the customs and subsidies in the port of Sandwich, 100l. from the like in the port of Kyngeston upon Hull, and 100l. from the like in the port of Bristol, until he be fully paid; and if these letters be invalid, the chancellor shall issue others without further suit.

Jan. 22. Mandate to the escheator in the county of Lincoln to restore the temporalities of the monastery of Bardenay to Gilbert Multon, monk of Croyland, whom William, bishop of Lincoln, has provided to be abbot, whose fealty also the king has taken.

The like to the escheator in the county of York.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants.