Membrane 11—cont.

and has made petition shewing that from his father’s death he has been in the king’s ward and service, attending about his person by the space of two years and more and cannot obtain livery of his inheritance without great pain and process,—to enter into the premises without suit or proof of age, saving the dowry of Joan late the wife of Christopher, and to hold the same with all liberties, franchises, immunities, customs, markets and fairs, as Christopher had the same, without fine, fee or relief in England or Ireland; and grant to him of all profits, issues and revenues therefrom from his coming of age, and pardon of his non-marriage, though a competent marriage was offered to him by the king.

By p.s. etc.

Licence for the men of the mistery of tailors in New Saresbury to found in a chapel of St. John the Baptist a fraternity of themselves in the church of St. Edmund in that city and to admit men and women thereto; and incorporation of the men of the said mistery, who shall elect yearly two wardens to govern the fraternity and have the keeping of the lands, rents, possessions and goods of the same, to wit, at the Nativity of St. John the Baptist in the said church or other suitable place within the city, and remove the wardens when need be; and the wardens and commonalty shall have a perpetual succession and common seal, and shall be capable of acquiring lands, rents and possessions, of pleading and of being impleaded in any court, of making ordinances for their governance and of meeting when they will to debate among themselves with others for their counsel and advice; licence also for them to found a chantry of one chaplain to celebrate divine service daily for the good estate of the king and of the members of the fraternity and for their souls after death and the souls of Henry V and the king’s progenitors at the altar of St. John the Baptist in the said church, and to acquire in mortmain lands and rents held of the king in burgage and of others to the value of 20l. a year in aid of the sustenance of the chaplain and other charges and works of piety.

By K. etc.

Licence for William, marquis and earl of Suffolk, to grant in mortmain to Master John Thurston, master of the college of the chapel of Corpus Christi by the church of St. Laurence Pulteney, London, and the chaplains of that place the advowson of the parish church of St. Mary Abbehirche, London, and a yearly pension of 40s. issuing therefrom, whereof the marquis and all others whose estate the marquis now has in the said pension were seised from time immemorial by the hands of the parson thereof, which advowson and pension the marquis had of late to him, his heirs and assigns, of the grant of Henry Werkworth, prior of the priory of St. Mary Overeye, co. Surrey, and the convent of that place; to hold to the said master and chaplains in exchange for the tenement with the houses built thereon, the shop, plot of land and all its appurtenances lying in the parish of All Hallows on the Cellar, London, by the inn of the marquis between the tenement sometime of Robert Sapi, knight, now of the master of the hospital of St. Bartholomew, Westsmithfield, in the suburbs of London, and the tenement sometime of John de Pulteney, knight, now of the marquis, on the west, and a common lane leading from the churchyard of the said college to Thamysestrte on the east, and extending from the tenement sometime of William de Leyre, now pertaining to the chamber of the Guildhall of London,