1447. Membrane 11—cont.

on the south, to the garden sometime of the said John de Pulteney, now of the marquis, on the north, and containing in length by the said lane from north to south 66 feet and in length by the said tenements sometime of Robert Sapy and John de Pulteney 53 feet, and in breadth by the said garden 50 feet and by the tenement sometime of William de Leyre 32 feet; which advowson and tenement are held of the king in burgage.

By K. etc.

1448. April 1. Westminster.

Letters of denization for Thomas Loon, chaplain, born in the parts of Cologne in Almain. By K. etc.

Appointment, by advice of the council, of the sum of 10000L. to be applied for one year for the expenses of the household beyond 2000L. to be received from the queen by the treasurer of the household, with mandate to the treasurer and chamberlains of the Exchequer to make delivery to the treasurer of the household of the said sum at the discretion of the treasurer of England, to wit, 6666L. 13s. 4d. thereof from the fifteenths and tenths granted by the laity in the last parliament at Westminster, 24 Henry VI, and from the tenth granted by the clergy in the same year, and 5000 marks from the customs and subsidies in the ports and from the casualties of the realm; and mandate to the same treasurer and chamberlains to deliver to a person or persons, as the king shall appoint, the sum of 5000L. for the king's secret alms and his alms on Good Friday for the following year, from the money of the said grants.

By K. & C. etc.

Grant to William, marquis of Suffolk, and Thomas Stanley, knight, of the office of chief steward of all the castles, lordships, manors, lands, rents, honours, hundreds, soke, mills, fee-farms, fees of counties and knights' fees and of all issue thereof, late parcels of the duchy of Lancaster, whereof the king enfeoffed John, cardinal of York, John, archbishop of Canterbury, and William, bishop of Lincoln, and others in letters patent under the seal of the duchy, which feoffees demised the same again to the king for a certain term; to hold themselves or by deputy during the king's estate therein without wages during the life of Roger Fenys, knight, so that immediately after his death, if he die during the king's said estate, the said marquis and Thomas may have yearly therefor such wages, fees and profits as Roger had before the said feoffment.

By K. etc.

Nov. 29. Westminster.

Exemption in survivorship of Richard Baker and John Baker, farmers of the priory and convent of the monastery of Derteford of their manor of Hacheham, co. Surrey, from being put on juries or inquisitions and from being made collector or assessor of taxes, fifteenths, quotas, contributions or other subsidies, constable, bailiff or other officer of the king; and grant that no purveyor, minister or serjeant of the king take any carriages, goods or chattels of them or their farmers or tenants.

By p.s. etc.