1448. Westminster. Grant for life to John Randolff of the keeping of the council-chamber within the palace of Westminster and of the office of usher of the Receipt of the Exchequer, to hold himself or by deputy immediately after the death of William Norton, esquire, who now has the same, with the usual wages, fees, rewards and profits, and the houses and chambers which John Ederyk sometime held in the Receipt, and a livery of vesture of the suit of the esquires of the household yearly against Christmas; in lieu of a like grant to the king’s servant, John Trevelyan, by letters patent, surrendered.

April 12. Westminster. Revocation of the protection with clause volumus for one year granted on 24 November last to William Newton, citizen and mercer of London, as about to stay in the company of the king’s knight, William Bonevle, seneschal of the duchy of Aquitaine, on the safe keeping and victualling thereof; because he tarries at Webly, co. Hereford, as the sheriff of the county has certified.

April 17. Westminster. The like of the same granted on 20 February last to Thomas Nuelyn alias Nukelyn to stay in the company of William, lord of Facomberg, captain of the castle of Rokesbrough in the marches of Scotland, on the safe keeping and victualling thereof; because he tarries in Cornwall, as the sheriff has certified.

April 12. Westminster. Grant, for life to John More, esquire, of 12d. a day from 17 December, 23 Henry VI, in the office of serjeant at arms, from the great and petty customs in the port of Ipswich; in lieu of a grant of the office by letters patent of the said date, surrendered so far as concerns the wages specified therein.

May 20. Westminster. Signification to John Stanbury, elect of Bangor, of the royal assent to the election of brother David ap Meredith, canon of the house of Bardesey, as abbot of that place.

MEMBRANE 34.

April 18. Westminster. Grant for life to William Beauchamp, knight, king’s carver, of the lands, rents and services sometime of Baldwin Frevell in the town and fields of Yatesbury, co. Wilts, in the king’s hands.

April 25. Westminster. Pardon, for 40s. paid in the hanaper, of a trespass set forth in an inquisition taken before Thomas Sharneburn, escheator in Norfolk, whereby it was found that John de la Chambre, deceased, was seised in his demesne as of fee of the manor called ‘Bardeles’ in Skulton, co. Norfolk, held in chief by the service of half a knight’s fee, and by his charter dated at Eppyng, co. Essex, 10 May last, granted the same without licence to Thomas Codlyng, rector of Hengham, Robert atte Moor, ‘yoman,’ William Blaunsche, ‘yoman,’ Thomas Duke, ‘yoman,’ of Hengham, Richard Nicoll, ‘yoman,’ of Eppyng, Thomas Rolf, ‘yoman,’ and Thomas Derby of Chepyngonge, co. Essex, ‘yoman,’ their heirs and assigns.
