

1448.

Membrane 15—cont.

3 tenements with a quay, shops, solars and other appurtenances and 6s. 8d. of yearly rent, to wit, one of the tenements late of John Geyton alias Gayton, late citizen and fishmonger of London, in the parish of St. Mildred, 'Bredestrete,' London, in 'Bredestrete' ward, another late of Margaret Welton, late the wife of Robert Welton, in the parish of St. Magnus by London bridge in 'Thamistrete' in Bridge ward, and the third with the quay adjacent, shops, solars and other appurtenances in the same parish in 'Briggestrete' in 'Billyngesgate' ward, sometime of Henry Bosworth, and the said rent issuing from a tenement sometime of Henry Bosworth, late citizen and mercer of London, son and heir of Henry Bosworth, alias Henry Boresworth, late citizen and vintner of London, in the parish of St. Botolph in 'Billyngesgate' ward, and Roger Clovile, 'chaundeler,' citizen of London, a tenement and two shops with a solar built thereon, to wit, a tenement in the parish of St. Magnus by the common privy (latrinam) at the foot of London bridge, and the two shops on 'Drynkwater Wharf' alias 'Cokkeswharf' in the same parish, to do certain yearly charges in the said church for the salvation of their souls: the king has confirmed the premises to the members of the gild in mortmain in support of two chaplains to celebrate divine service in the chapel of St. Mary and St. Thomas the Martyr in the said church for the good estate of the king and queen and the members of the gild and for their souls after death and the souls of their parents, and for the maintenance of certain poor, weak and impotent men and women, members of the gild, to pray for the good estates and souls above, and of a light before the image of the Virgin; and the chaplains shall be appointed by the wardens.

By p.s. etc.

Aug. 25. Grant to John Stoughton, late serjeant of the catery, of a sum of Westminster. 400*l.* for the expenses of the household, victuals to which amount he delivered in the time of Roger Fenys, late treasurer of the household, for the use of the household, as appears by several bills indented made in the time of the said Roger,—from the first moneys arising from certain customs and subsidies in the ports of Lenne and Ipswich, to wit, 100*l.* in Lenne and 300*l.* in Ipswich, by indentures to be made between him and the customers; and he shall have preferment before other such assignations made by the king or treasurer or other person in the king's name; provided that he surrender the said bills into the Exchequer.

By p.s. etc.

MEMBRANE 14.

June 2. Grant to William de la Pole, marquis of Suffolk and earl of Pem-
Westminster. broke, whom the king this day has created duke of Suffolk, and Alice his wife in tail male, of two parts of the manor of Swafham with the reversion of the third part, which Jacquetta, late the wife of John, duke of Bedford, holds in dower for life, and of the office of warden of the New Forest, co. Southampton, and the keeping of the forest and of the manor and park of Lyndehurst and the hundred of Reddebruge and a yearly rent of 40s. paid by the abbot of Redyng, the wild deer excepted, and of the castles and lordships of Pembrok, Tenby and Kylgaren and the commotes of Estrelawe, Treyne and Seynclere in Wales and the castle and lordship of Lanstephan in