 learned that by letters patent made at Dublin on 24 April, 8 Henry VI, under the great seal of Ireland under witness and by the assent of Richard, archbishop of Dublin, justiciary of Ireland, the king granted to them and their successors a water-mill with a water between Naas and Yagoeston, co. Kildare, worth 2 marks a year, at a rose rent, and they held the same until James Power and Philip Walsh expelled them by colour of letters patent under witness of Giles Thorndon, treasurer of Ireland, dated 28 February, 21 Henry VI, touching the keeping of the premises by the name of a water-mill called 'Mydelmill,' although the king by other letters patent under the great seal of Ireland under witness and by assent of John, earl of Shrewsbury, lieutenant of Ireland, dated at Trym, 17 May, 25 Henry VI, ratified their estate therein, any grant to any others before the latter date notwithstanding:—the king ratifies their said estate, any resumption thereof notwithstanding. By p.s. etc.

Grant for life to the king's serjeant, John de Burgh, yeoman of the crown, of 6d. a day from 20 June last from the issues of the manor of Merston Meysy, co. Wilts.

Mandate in pursuance to the farmers, occupiers, sheriffs or other ministers of the manor.

Grant to the king's serjeant, Thomas Hampton, lieutenant within the forest of Westbery, co. Southampton, which office he has long held without fees, of the next copses (copias) of underwood to be cut down in the forest with all profits thereof by livery of the master of the forest and by survey of the verderers and other occupiers; and he may enclose and keep the same. By K.

Grant to Master Thomas Car, canon and prebendary in the collegiate church of Hastyng, of the free chapel of St. Peter within the Tower of London, on an exchange of benefices with John Clampayn. By K.

Licence for the sub-prioress and convent of Ankerwik to elect a prioress in the room of Margaret, resigned. By p.s. etc.

Signification to W. bishop of Lincoln of the royal assent to the election of Margaret Port, nun of the house of Bromehale, in the diocese of Salisbury, as prioress of the Benedictine house of Ankerwik.

Grant to Anne Roos, late the wife of the king's knight, Robert Roos, deceased, tenant in chief, and to Nicholas Husce, John Marbury, Robert Wesynham and William Austyn, executors of the will of Robert Roos, of the wardship and marriage of Henry, his son and heir, and of the keeping of the castle and lordship of Rokyngham and the stewardship and keeping of the forest of Rokyngham between the bridges of Stamanford and the gates of Oxford, with all profits and the survey of vert and venison in all parks and bailiwicks within the said stewardship and forest, and of the keeping.