1449.

Membrane 2—cont.

Griffin ap Nicholas, esquire, their heirs and assigns, the castle, manor, town and lordship of Nerberth in the march of Wales, held in chief.

May 16.

Westminster.

Appointment, during good behaviour, of John Durem, as one of the barons of the Exchequer, taking the usual fee. By K. etc.

May 8.

Westminster.

Grant to John Wering of Cambridge, his heirs and assigns, of a void plot of land in Cambridge between another void plot which the king granted of late to Agnes Jacob, and a parcel of a mill of the master and scholars of the college of Corpus Christi and St. Mary, Cambridge, on the south, and a tenement late of the prior and convent of Anglesey, now in the tenure of John Fryng, baker, of Cambridge, on the north, and abutting at the east end on the bakery of the said Agnes and at the west end partly on the said void plot of Agnes and partly on the highway, containing in length from the bakery to the said void plot of Agnes 46 feet, and extending in one parcel on the north of the said void plot from the bakery on the east to the highway on the west 58½ feet and in another parcel extending by the said tenement from the said bakery on the east to the highway on the west 54 feet, and containing in breadth at the west end from the said void plot to the said tenement 21½ feet and in the middle by the east end of the land of Agnes 31½ feet, and at the east end by the bakery 19 feet; which plot the king had of the gift of the said prior and convent of Anglesey. By K. etc.

May 8.

Westminster.

Grant to John Duxworth of Cambridge, his heirs and assigns, of a tenement in Cambridge between the void plot of John Weryng on the south and the tenement of the master and scholars of the same college [last entry] on the north, abutting at the east end on the garden of the said prior and convent [ibid.] and at the west end on the high street and containing in breadth from the said void plot on the south to the said tenement on the north, to wit, at the west end by the high street 47½ feet and at the east end by the said garden 51½ feet, and containing in length by the south part near the said void plot from the said garden on the east to the high street 75 feet and by the north part near the said tenement from the garden to the high street 64 feet; which tenement the king had of late as above. [ibid.] By K. etc.

May 8.

Westminster.

Grant in frank almon to Agnes Jacob of Cambridge of a void plot of land in Cambridge between the mill of the said master and scholars [last entry] on the south, and another void plot on the north, abutting at the east end on the king's land and at the west end on the highway, containing in length from east to west 16 feet and in breadth at the west end 12½ feet and at the east end 10 feet; which plot the king had of late, as above. [ibid.] By K. etc.

July 20.

Westminster.

Grant for life to Robert Wyntersell of the office of the king's dogs called 'therthouandes,' with the usual fees, wages and profits, as Master James, late serjeant of the office, deceased, or any other had the same. By K. etc.

July 23.

Westminster.

Whereas Henry, late duke of Warwick, brother of Anne, wife of Richard Neville, knight, first born son of Richard Neville, earl of