Grant for life to the king's knight, Ralph, lord of Seudeley, steward of the household, of the vert and venison of the forest of Wichewoode, co. Oxford, and all wood and underwood, honey, bark, trees, and branches falling or blown down, hawks of every kind, 'waif,' 'strayes' and all other profits of the forest; and of the fee-farm of 7L. 18s. which the heir of Henry, late duke of Warwick, pays for the keeping of the forest or for any lands within the same with the arrears thereof, by the hands of the keeper of the forest.

By K. etc.

Whereas Pope Nicholas V by letters patent dated at Rome at St. Peter's, 1447, III. Non. February, in the first year of his pontificate, on the petition of Ralph Boteler, knight, lord of Seudeley, steward of the king's household, granted to Richard Shiplode, brother of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem, that he might accept any ecclesiastical benefice with or without cure, secular or regular, and dispose of the fruits thereof, save by way of alienation of the goods and precious movables thereof, notwithstanding ordinances of the pope, of Octo and Octobo, sometime papal legates in England, or of the said hospital or other regular place, wherein the benefice may depend:— the king, at the instance of the said Ralph, has granted licence for Richard to accept and execute the bull.

By p.s. etc.

Grant for life to John Trevilian, esquire, yeoman of the crown, of 10 marks yearly from the death of John Cornewavill, knight, deceased, for the keeping and constabulary of the castle of Tremenon, from the issues of the duchy of Cornwall, and of 10L. a year from the same death for the keeping and constabulary of the castle of Rostermall from the same issues, and of 4d. a day from the same death for the keeping of Rostermall park and the office of parker thereof from the same issues, and of the herbage and pasturage of the parks of Tremenon and Rostermall, underwood, dead wood, windfall and 'brousyng' within the same and all other profits of the said offices and the privileges, liberties and profits of the water of Fowey and all forfeitures therein; the said wages not having been specified in a grant to him of the said offices by letters patent dated 12 November, 22 Henry VI.

By p.s. etc.

Exemption for life of John Chaterise of London, the younger, 'brewer,' from being put on assizes, juries, recognitions, attaints or inquisitions and from being made mayor, sheriff, escheator, coroner, constable, reeve, collector, assessor, taxor or controller of tenths, fifteenths, taxes, tallages, quotas or other subsidies; and grant that no purveyor of the king take of his goods against his will. By p.s. etc.

The like of John Chaterise the elder, of London, 'brewer,' as above. By p.s. etc.

Grant for life to the king's serjeant, Christopher Wartyr, king's skinner, that he or his attorneys may sue for and have all writs of debt from the hanaper of Chancery, against any persons in all actions of debt, to whatever sums they amount, without any fine, or any writ or warrant to the keeper of the hanaper. By p.s. etc.