May 15. Westminster. Presentation of John Laton, chaplain, to the parish church of Cheldryngton, in the diocese of Salisbury.

May 14. Westminster. Pardon, for ½ mark paid in the hanaper, to Robert Hungerford, lord of Molyne, knight. Thomas Troppenell and Robert Lye for having acquired to them, their heirs and assigns, of Thomas Bayly of Wynterbourne Basset, son and heir of William Bayly of Barwyk Basset, 20 acres of land in Chippenham and Pencnham, co. Wilts, held in chief, and entered therein, whereafter Robert and Robert released the same to Thomas, his heirs and assigns, without licence; and grant that Thomas may retain the premises.

April 3. Westminster. Licence for life for John Utynam, born in Flanders, who has returned of late to England at the king’s command, to stay in the realm with his wife and children, sons and daughters, and servants, as any liege of the king, and protection for the same; grant also to him for life that he may engage in all acts, works and sciences lawful and liberal without impediment, and since he has come to make glass of all colours for the windows of Eton college and the college of St. Mary and St. Nicholas, Cambridge, appointment of him to take artificers, workmen and labourers and to set them to work at the king’s wages, and wood, clay (lutum), stones, ashes, metals and carriage therefor, and to commit to prison all rebellious herein to stay until they find security to serve faithfully; and grant that all glass made at his own costs and not for the use of the colleges may be exposed by him for sale without payment of customs or subsidies thereon; and because the said art has never been used in England and John intends to instruct divers lieges of the king in many other arts never used in the realm beside the said art of making glass, the king retains him therefor for life at his wages and fees and grants that no liege of the king learned in such arts shall use them for a term of twenty years against the will and assent of John, under a penalty of 200l., whereby two parts shall be rendered to the king and one part to John, any liege who cannot levy that sum to suffer imprisonment without delivery save by the king’s special command.

By K. etc.

May 23. Westminster. Pardon to Thomas Fitzgerot, prior of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in Ireland, of the king’s suit for all treasons not touching the king’s person, felonies, trespasses, negligences, misprisions, defects, contempts, excesses and offences hitherto and any consequent outlawry.

By p.s. etc.

May 24. Westminster. Pardon to John, abbot of Redyng, and the convent of that place of all trespasses, offences, misprisions, contempts and impeachments, and all debts, accounts, prets and arrears of farms and accounts due before 1 January last.

By p.s. etc.

May 23. Westminster. Licence, for 6s. 8d. paid in the hanaper, for Richard Horton, gentilman, to grant to John Wydowesson, citizen and saddler of London, and Isabel his wife, all his lands in Mikelham, co. Surrey, called the manor of Mikelham alias Frydelees with all its appurtenances and the advowson of Mikelham church, held in chief, and for them to regrant the same to Peter Ardern, chief baron of the Exchequer, and to William Grond, William Wydowesson and John Lokke, citizens and mercers of London, and their heirs.