therein, whereupon they entered and were seised thereof and had issue, George; and afterwards Henry disseized them and had issue, Anne, and died, and they re-entered and were seised thereof until they were expelled by colour of an inquisition taken before Edmund Morys and Richard Hakeluyt, whereby it was found that Henry died seised of the premises, that Anne was his daughter and heir and within age and that the premises were held of the king and crown; and Anne died in the king's ward:—the king has granted licence for them to enter and hold the premises.

By p.s. etc.

July 14.

Grant to Richard Alanson, by assent of Marmaduke, bishop of Carlisle, treasurer of England, of the office of controller of the subsidies on wools, hides and woolfells, of tunnage and poundage and other subsidies granted by the commons, and of the great and petty customs in the port of Kyngeston upon Hull, to hold from 1 April, 26 Henry VI, keeping one part of the 'cockett' seal himself or by deputy, until he be recompensed in 20l. a year for life, taking from the said date 7½d. a day from the same customs, and the usual rewards. By p.s. etc.

July 24.

Appointment, during pleasure, of Thomas Longer, John Plubell and Richard Grene to take mariners and soldiers to serve on the sea and all victuals necessary for them.

By K. & C.

The like of John Judd, Michael de Bairaday, Stephen de Jawelry and Sabbat de Larre.

By K. & C.

April 30.

On the shewing of the poor inhabitants of Westbarnet that there is a common way for all the king's lieges on foot or horse, who come daily from St. Albans to London with carts, carriages and otherwise, and that in the town of Westbarnet is a chapel of St. John the Baptist, and that they have found at their own costs a chaplain to celebrate morning mass for the easement of them and the said lieges who flock daily to the town, but cannot support the same:—the king has granted licence for John, archbishop of Canterbury, Robert Mouter, clerk, Robert Kirkeham, clerk, Thomas Norton, clerk, John Beauchamp, John Marton, Thomas Nicol, John Lyons and Reynolds William to found a gild of one chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the said chapel and specially to pray for the good estate of the king and queen Margaret and the said founders and for their souls after death, to be called the chantry of the Holy Trinity, Barnet, and for them to receive certain persons as brethren and sisters of the gild, who shall be incorporate and capable of acquiring possessions and shall elect yearly a master and two wardens to have the governance and survey of the gild and the keeping of such possessions, and remove the same when need be, and shall have a common seal and be capable of pleading and of being implead in any court, of meeting together with others for counsel and advice and of clothing themselves in one suit. Licence also for the members of the gild to acquire in mortmain lands to the value of 10l. a year.

By p.s. etc. and for 20 marks paid in the hanaper.

Membranes 6-3.

June 28.

Inspeccimus and confirmation to the mayor, bailiffs and burgesses of Notyngham of a charter [rectius letters patent] dated at Leycestre, 24 May, 2 Henry V, inspecting and confirming [a charter dated 18