April 3. Westminster.

On the surrender by Richard, earl of Salisbury, and William Neville, lord of Facomberge, George Neville, lord of Latymer, and Edward Neville, lord of Bergevenny, brothers of the earl, so far as concerns the manors of Dighton by Northalvertone, co. York, and Egremond, co. Cumberland, of letters patent dated 8 March, 25 Henry VI, granting to the earl in fee, with successive remainders to the said William, George and Edward in fee, in exchange for 40l. 13s. 4d. yearly from the subsidies in the port of Kyngeston upon Hull granted to the earl in tail male by letters patent dated 1 October, 23 Henry VI, the manor of Dighton to the value of 14l. a year, the keeping whereof was granted to the earl by letters patent dated 18 November, 11 Henry VI, from Easter then next for twenty years, and the rent of 14l. therefrom, and the manor of Egremond to the value of 26l. 13s. 4d., the keeping whereof was granted to the earl in a general grant of the lands late of Joan, countess of Westmoreland, in Cumberland, with certain exceptions, by letters patent dated 10 February, 20 Henry VI [Calendar, 1441-1446, p. 44.], at a rent to be agreed upon, which rent was afterwards agreed to be 40 marks a year:—the king has now granted to the earl in tail male two parts of the castle of Richemond, co. York, and of all houses within the site thereof; and two parts of the mill in Richemond and of the wapentakes or bailiwicks of Gylyngest, Gylyngwest, Hangest and Halikeld in Richemondshire, co. York, and all homages, rents called 'Castelwarde' and all other rents, services and advowsons in the county pertaining to the king by reason of the castle, honour or lordship of Richemond, and all knights' fees, to the yearly value of 19l. 14s. 4d.; and two parts of the manor or lordship of Multon, co. York, the keeping whereof was committed to William Frank, esquire, by letters patent dated 20 April, 26 Henry VI, from Easter then last for forty years at the rent of 9l. 15s. 7d. and 12d. beyond of increment; and the said rent of 9l. 15s. 7d. and 12d. during the said term; and two parts of the lordship or manor of Forset alias Forsett, co. York, the keeping whereof was committed to Brian Roucliff by letters patent dated 23 June, 26 Henry VI, from Easter then last for forty years at a rent to be agreed on between him and the treasurer before Easter then following, and the said farm paid by Brian during his term; and two parts of a profit, rent or farm of the dye-works within the liberty or lordship of Richemond called 'le litferme,' to the value of 53s. 4d. a year; and the reversion of the third part of all the premises, which Richard Wydevile, knight, and Jacquetta, duchess of Bedford, his wife, hold in dower for her life, to the value of 21l. 10s. 7d. and the half of a farthing; to hold, in recompense of the said manors of Dighton and Egremond, by the service of a fiftieth part of a knight's fee and the rent at the Receipt of the Exchequer of 47s. 11d. and after the death of the duchess of 21l. 10s. [7]3d. and the half of a farthing; with successive remainders to the said William Nevill in tail male, to the said George Nevill in tail male and to the said Edward Neville in tail male; and
