Nov. 11. Licent for Thomas Hunt, prior of the church of St. Mary, Wal-syngham, and the convent of that place, to enter the church or chapel, site and place, of the priory or hospital of Peterston, Brunham St. Clements, and all lands, rents and possessions, parcels thereof, or late of the last prior and brethren thereof, with knights’ fees and ad-vowsons, and to acquire in mortmain the title therein, and confirmation to them thereof.

By K. etc.

Nov. 18. Pardon to the abbot and convent of Rewley and the abbot by himself, of all debts, accounts, arrears of accounts and farms and all actions and demands in the Exchequer against them hitherto.

By K. etc.

Dec. 5. Presentation of John Freday to the church of Chelmon, in the diocese of Norwich.

Dec. 9. Indulgence to Adam, bishop of Chichester, keeper of the privy seal, on his petition shewing that he is weak in body and sight and constrained in conscience to oversee his cure, and in consideration of his long labour and usefulness in the king’s councils, in his exercise of offices and in embassies and that he has endured no small personal peril, granting to him for life that he may abstain from secular occupation and from coming to the king’s parliament, great or secret council, and that he may fulfil pilgrimages and vows and take with him 5000 marks of his goods. \([\text{Feodera.}]\) By p.s. etc.

Oct. 27. Grant to John, archbishop of Canterbury, the chancellor, of the presentation to the next void prebend within the chapel of St. Stephen, Westminster palace, after the presentation likewise granted to him by letters patent dated 20 November, 27 Henry VI.

By K. etc.

Sept. 23. Protection for John Wykes, his men, lands, rents, possessions and goods (\textit{in like terms as for John Edmund above, p. 295}). By p.s. etc.

Sept. 25. Commission to William, duke of Suffolk, Ralph Botiller of Sudeley, knight, Edmund Hampden, knight, John Hampden and Edmund Roade to treat with spiritual and secular persons in the county of Buckingham for a loan to maintain the war against the king’s adversaries who cease not to wage war on England, Normandy and other places of the king’s obedience by land and sea, by captures, robberies, murders and slaughters of the king’s lieges and captures of castles, towns and places in the said duchy and other places; with full power to allow such persons to have security according to the sum so lent from grants in the last parliament and convocation of the clergy of the province of Canterbury.

By K. & C. The like to the following in the following counties and places:—

William, duke of Suffolk, the abbot of Abyndon, the abbot of Redyng, Robert Shotesbroke, knight, John Norys, John Roger, Edward Langford, Richard Restwold and John Purby. Berks.
