Exemplification, at the request of John Gra of Ingelby, co. Lincoln, knight, (1) of the enrolment of a charter of John Gra, dated at Ingelby, 17 April, 2 Henry VI, granting to John Mowbrey, earl marshal, lord of the isle of Axholm and of Segrave, John, lord Talbot and of Tournevall, Thomas de Dacre, lord of Gildeslone, Lewis Robessart, lord of Bourghier, Thomas Swynford, knight, Thomas Swynford his son, Henry Morley, John Boys and John Berkeley, esquires, the manors of Ingelby, Multonhalle in Frampton and Mynnyngesby and all his lands, rents, reversions and services in Salfletby and Somercotes with advowsons, co. Lincoln, on condition that they reenfeoff him or his heirs when required; and appointing Thomas Spenser of Somercotes and Robert Manby of Stowe as his attorneys to deliver to them seisin thereof. Witnesses:—Thomas Wylughby, Thomas Cumberworth, William Tirwhit, knights, John Tourney, John Veer, Thomas Spenser, John Tost and others;

(2) of the enrolment of a memorandum in Chancery, that John Gra came into Chancery on 19 February, 2 Henry VI, and acknowledged the charter;

(3) of a petition [English] shewn in Chancery by John Gra, setting forth that Margaret, sometime the wife of the petitioner, was with her aunt, the wife of Sir William Haryngton, knight, from the 'septas' of Michaelmas, 2 Henry VI, for a year and more, and had joint estate with him in the manors of Ingelby, Multon Hall in Frampton and Mynnyngesby and the lands aforesaid [see charter above], and the deeds of feoffment thereof, and, so that she should not rule or alienate the premises against his will, he granted the same by deed to the aforesaid feoffees [ibid.], which deed Nicholas Girlyngton says is false and forged by conspiracy of the petitioner, Thomasyne his wife, William West of North Ingelby, 'yoman,' and Roger Foridden.
