1451,
Commission to Thomas Pygge, appointing him during pleasure as auditor of all receivers, bailiffs, collectors, reeves, bedels, 'wodewards' and other officers and ministers of the lordship and forest of Fekenham, co. Worcester, from the death of Anne, late daughter and heir of Henry, late duke of Warwick; taking 40s. and the usual fees and wages by the hands of the said ministers.

By p.s. etc.

Grant to Robert James, knight, late lieutenant of Bayeux, who has served Henry V and the king in the wars of France and in Normandy by the space of thirty years and more and has been taken prisoner four times and put to excessive ransoms and at the last treaty (appunctuamentum) of Bayeux lost all that he had and withdrew to England in great poverty,—that he be one of the sustenance of the knights of alms within the college of St. George within Wyndesocastle, with the appurtenant profits, as other knights have there.

By p.s. etc.

Grant for life to Lewis Dispoy, knight, of 100 marks yearly at the Receipt of the Exchequer by the hands of the treasurer and chamberlains.

By p.s. etc.

Grant for life to the king's serjeant, William Botiller, yeoman of the butlery, for good service to Henry V and the king by the space of thirty-five years and more and in consideration of his age, of the offices of 'rhagiar' and 'amobre' of the commote of Talebolion, co.
Anglesey, North Wales, to hold himself or by deputy, with the usual wages, fees and profits; in lieu of a like grant thereof to him, surrendered, and a grant thereof in survivorship to him and Richard Savage, groom of the butlery, invalid on account of an act in the parliament held last at Westminster.

By p.s. etc.

Presentation of Lewis Gwegyr, chaplain, to the parish church of Abberfraware in Anglesey, in the diocese of Bangor, void by the death of Howell ap Llewellyn.

By p.s. etc.

Mandate to bailiffs and others to permit Patrick Thowelas, born in the parts of Scotland, who has stayed in England for eighteen years and more at Brokelond and has taken the oath of fealty, to dwell within the realm and enjoy his goods, provided that he bear himself as the king's liege and pay his dues.

By p.s. etc.

Grant to Richard Pynne of Wynchelsee, mariner, for good service on the sea in the rescue of a ship laden with corn for the victualling of Calais and taken by the king's adversaries, and because he has promised to serve the king on the sea for a year at his own expenses with three ships and sixty men in each thereof, without offence to any lieges, friends and allies of the king or any others under safe-conduct,—of the mast of a hulk called le George of Solse in the port of Portsmouth, taken and brought thither by a great ship called le Nicholas del Toure and other vessels.

By p.s. etc.

Pardon, on the petition of Thomas Heyno of Stecynbury, Isle of Wight, co. Southampton, and other inhabitants and residents within the said isle and county, to the said Thomas and all other such in-
