1450.

Membrane 4—cont.

patent dated 24 November, 19 Henry VI, surrendered as annulled, so far as the wages are concerned, by pretext of an act made in parliament at Westminster on the said 6 November. By p.s. etc.

Oct. 30. Pardon to William Pendere, rector of the church of Selsy, co. Sussex, of the king's suit against him for having with others on Wednesday after St. Bartholomew, 28 Henry VI, at Brembre, Stenyngge and Vitelworth, with other traitors, rebels and enemies of the king there and elsewhere in Sussex, plotted the destruction of the king and realm and agreed that they and other traitors, lollards and heretics should take upon themselves the power and rule of the realm and destroy the lords spiritual and temporal, specially such as resisted, and for having with them waged war against the king on the said Wednesday at the said places and on Thursday after at Cieestre, co. Sussex, saying that within a short space they would number 10,000 men and proposing to hold all things in common contrary to the laws and customs of the realm used and approved from all time; and of any consequent outlawries and forfeiture. By p.s. etc.

1451.

Feb. 26. Grant, by advice and assent of the lords spiritual and temporal in the present parliament, to Richard Caudray, clerk, dean of the free chapel of St. Martin le Grand, London, Robert Horne and William Marwe, citizens and aldermen of London, Geoffrey Boleyn and Alexander Haysands, citizens of London, who with other lieges of the said city lent the king a sum of 1,246l. 13s. 4d. for the speedy expedition of the voyage of Richard Wydeville, knight, and others of his retinue towards Gascony to resist the malice of the king's enemies there and to stay on the safe-keeping and defence of those parts, which sum has been received by John, cardinal and archbishop of York, John, archbishop of Canterbury, Thomas, bishop of London, and William, bishop of Winchester, treasurers and receivers of the tenth granted by the prelates and clergy of the province of Canterbury, as above [m. 13.], and paid to the said Richard in part satisfaction of the wages of him and his retinue,—that the said Richard Caudray, Robert, William, Geoffrey and Alexander or their executors shall have the said 1,246l. 13s. 4d. at the Annunciation, 1453, from the second moiety of the said tenth by the hands of the said treasurers by indentures to be made between them and the treasurers; and the chancellor and keeper of the privy seal shall cause the necessary writs and warrants to be issued to the said treasurers and to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer, and, if necessary, other letters patent and mandates in favour of the said creditors for full payment of the said sum without further suit before the king's person and without any fee.

By K. & C.

June 1. Grant, by advice and assent of the council, to Richard Joyner, in payment of a loan of 300l., of a like sum from the subsidy of tunnage and poundage or any goods and merchandise entering the port of London and issuing thence from Christmas last till Christmas, 1452, by the hands of the collectors, in part deduction of the sum of 20,000l. granted to the king in the last parliament, as above [p. 465], by indentures to be made between the collectors and Richard; and the chancellor and keeper of the privy seal shall cause the necessary writs etc. to be issued, as above.

By p.s. etc.