1451.

Nov. 8. Presentation of Henry Scryvener, chaplain, to the vicarage of the parish church of Monks Shirbourn, in the diocese of Winchester, void by the resignation of Henry Waynman, chaplain.

Nov. 9. Licence for the prioress and convent of the house of Holy Cross, Westminster. Wherewell, to elect an abbess in the room of Sibyl Bolde, deceased.

Membrane 25—cont.

Sept. 22. Pardon to John Clerc alias Clerk, rector of the church of Halstowe, co. Kent, of the king's suit for all treasons, felonies, murders, trespasses, confederations, conspiracies, insurrections, congregations and other misdeeds committed by him before 1 April last, and any consequent outlawries, and of all punishments and executions therefor and grant to him of all goods, lands and rents and issues thereof forfeited by reason of the premises, into whose handssoever the same have come, in Kent or elsewhere, or of the value thereof, if sold or wasted, by the hands of the officers into whose hands the same have come.

By p.s. etc.

Sept. 28. Grant for life to Richard Lane, servant of the king's knight, William Lucy, of the offices of forester of Berewe with 'le mete holmes' within Fekenham forest, and of ranger of the said forest, with the usual wages, fees and profits.

By p.s. etc.

Sept. 30. Presentation of Richard Garde, chaplain, to a mediety of the church of Thenford, in the diocese of Lincoln, void by the resignation of John Page; directed to the guardian of the spirituality of the bishopric of Lincoln.

By p.s. etc.

Sept. 25. Grant to William Nevill, knight, lord of Faucombe, keeper of Rokeshurgh castle in the parts of Scotland, and late one of the king's ambassadors in France and Normandy, sent to make a treaty with the king's adversary of France or his ambassadors, which William, suspecting no guile, has been taken by the said king's enemies—in consideration of his services in France, Normandy and elsewhere, and because his wages for the keeping of the said castle due from the time of his occupying the same until Easter last are in great part unpaid,—of 4,108l. 18s. 10½d., to which sum the said wages amount, as appears by a petition in the last parliament presented on his behalf and examined and granted by the king by advice and assent of the lords spiritual and temporal therein, from the customs and subsidies on wool, cloths, hides, woollfells, tin, lead and other merchandise in the following ports:—to wit, 2,000l. in Boston, 1,600l. in Kyngeston upon Hull and 500l. 18s. 10½d. in Ipswich.

By p.s. etc.