MEMBRANE 17.

1451.
Nov. 27. Commission to Thomas Chambre to take oxen, sheep, cows, calves, swine and fish and all other things necessary to the catery of the household, and carriage therefor; till 29 April next.

By K. and C. and by bill of the treasurer of the household.

The like to the following:

Westminster.

John Butler, till 16 May next.
John Smyth, the like.

Robert Noke, the like.

Thomas Goldeney, to take fish.

John Smyth, as above, for half a year.

John Butler, as above.
Thomas Chambre, as above.

May 23.
Westminster.

May 12.
Westminster.

June 15.
Westminster.

John Smyth, the like.

Ralph Castelle, to take hay, oats, beans, litter, and all other things necessary to the avenary, and carriage therefor, for half a year.

By K. and C. and by bill of the treasurer of the household.

The like to the following:

By K. and C. and by bill of the treasurer of the household.

1451.
Dec. 4.
Westminster.

Grant in frank almoin to Richard Vyse, master, and the brethren of the hospital of St. John the Baptist without the east gate of Oxford, of the advowson of the parish church of Horspath, co. Oxford, and licence for them to appropriate the same and serve therein by one of themselves or another chaplain, whom they may remove at will, without endowing the vicarage or compulsion to make yearly distribution of alms among the poor parishioners.

By p.s. etc. and for 5 marks paid in the hanaper.

Nov. 20.
Westminster.

Pardon, for 6s. 8d. paid in the hanaper, to William Revenyng of Aylesbury, the elder, and Agnes his wife for acquiring to them and their heirs from Maud Verdon 12 acres of land and an acre of meadow in Aylesbury, held in chief, and for entering therein without licence; and licence for them to grant the same to John Ingram, William Chapman, Robert Revenyng, William Revenyng the younger and William Nauger and their heirs.

Nov. 24.
Westminster.

Exemplification, at the request of John Strelley of Lynby, esquire, of an inquisition before the verderers and regarders of the forest of Shirewode by virtue of a writ of Edward II, to enquire if any purpresture had been done in the forest by the king’s men and tenants of Lyndby in Lyndby moor alias Papulwykmore, taken at Papulwyke on Thursday after Michaelmas, 10 Edward II, and returned before the keeper of the forest, setting forth on the oath of Richard Adlynson of Arnall, John son of Robert of Arnall, Henry