and one in summer; and of the said office of clerk, to hold in like terms, with such daily wages and livery of vesture for the winter and summer seasons, as have been allowed to the keeper or keepers of the wardrobe for such clerk, from Michaelmas, 28 Henry VI; in lieu of grants by letters patent dated 19 July; 15 Henry VI, and 12 February, 16 Henry VI, surrendered as annulled by an act in the parliament held at Westminster on 6 November, 28 Henry VI. By p.s. etc.

June 27. Westminster. On the petition of the rector and brethren of the monastery of Edyndon, in the diocese of Salisbury, shewing that they have been assigned to collect tenths granted in the diocese by the clergy of the province of Canterbury, and the monastery is thereby impoverished, and specially that they have sustained of late intolerable damages through the sons of perdition who dragged William, late bishop of Salisbury, from the monastery and slew him, and, breaking down the houses and building of the monastery, took and carried away the goods and jewels of the petitioners; and that the rector has been assigned of late by the guardians of the spirituality of the bishopric to collect the second moiety of a tenth granted in the archdeaconries of Sarum and Wilts on Friday, 14 November, 28 Henry VI;—the king has granted that they and their successors be quit of the collection of all tenths, taxes, tallages, quotas and subsidies, and from fines, issues, amercements and other forfeitures for such non-collection.

By K. etc.

1451. Nov. 10. Westminster. Exemplification, at the request of John Talbot, knight, son and heir of John, earl of Shrewsbury, of a writing of the said John the son, dated at Sheffield, 6 November, 30 Henry VI, reciting letters patent dated 2 September, 25 Henry VI, granting to him the office of chancellor of Ireland, and deputing his kinsman, Thomas Talbot, knight, prior of the hospital of St. John of Jerusalem, Kylianayn, Ireland, to hold the office during John's pleasure, taking the usual wages, fees and rewards.

1452. June 9. Westminster. Commission to Thomas Pygge, appointing him during pleasure as one of the auditors of the duchy of Cornwall and of all castles, lordships, manors, towns, liberties, lands, members and other possessions of the duchy in Cornwall, Devon and elsewhere in England, in the room of Richard Flynt, one of the said auditors, to hold the office with Richard Bedford or any other to be appointed in future, taking such yearly fees and daily wages, as Richard Flynt and others have had, by the hands of the receivers-general, collectors, farmers and other officers and ministers of the duchy. By bill of the treasurer etc.

May 20. Westminster. Grant in survivorship to the king's servants, Thomas Carre and Thomas Ryngston, of the wages due to the office of keeping the palace called Prince's Palace at Westminster, granted to them by letters patent dated 27 January, 27 Henry VI, annulled by an act of resumption in the parliament held at Westminster on 6 November, 28 Henry VI; to have the same from the said 6 November from the issues of the duchy of Cornwall. By K. etc.
