Membrane 5—cont.

from Friday, 14 November, 1449, to 17 July following, one moiety thereof to be paid at the Annunciation, 1452, and the other moiety at the same feast then following, to Robert Tanfeld, in payment of a loan of 720l. received, by advice and assent of the council, by the king's knight, John Cheyne, victualler of Calais and the marches there, to make certain provisions of victuals and other stuffs, of 720l. from the said second moiety to be received as follows, 120l. in the archdeaconries of Suffolk and Sudbury, 200l. in the archdeaconries of Norwich and Norfolk, 40l. in the diocese of Ely, 40l. in the archdeaconry of Huntingdon, 110l. in the archdeaconry of Lincoln, 10l. in the archdeaconry of Stowe, 50l. in the archdeaconry of Lincoln, 10l. in the archdeaconry of Oxford, and 110l. in the diocese of Bath and Wells; and if he cannot so be fully paid, grant to him and his executors of the residue as follows, to wit, a moiety thereof in the archdeaconries of Essex and Colchester, London and Middlesex, Surrey, Lewes, Chichester, Winchester, Sarum and Wilts. Dorset, [the counties of] Devon and Cornwall, [the archdeaconries of] Worcester, Hereford, Gloucester, Shrewsbury in the dioceses of Coventry and Hereford, [the archdeaconries of] Stafford, Coventry, Cardian, Chester, Derby, Northampton, Bedford, Buckingham, Berks, and the dioceses of Rochester and Canterbury, and the other moiety thereof from the customs and subsidies in the ports of London and Southampton, to be equally divided. And the chancellor and keeper of the privy seal shall do their part herein.

The like, as above, to John Derby and Geoffrey Boleyn, citizens and aldermen of London, Richard Nedeham and Humphrey Hayford, citizens of London, in payment of a loan of 1,240l. 13s. 4d., received by the king's knight, Thomas Tirell, of a like sum as follows, to wit, 60l. in the archdeaconries of Essex and Colchester, 80l. in the archdeaconries of London and Middlesex, 24l. in the archdeaconry of Surrey, 20l. in the diocese of Rochester, 150l. in the diocese of Canterbury, 50l. in the archdeaconry of Lewes, 50l. in the archdeaconry of Chichester, 80l. in the archdeaconry of Winchester, 120l. in the archdeaconries of Sarum and Wilts, 60l. in the archdeaconry of Dorset, 50l. in the county of Devon, 30l. in the county of Cornwall, 30l. in the archdeaconry of Worcester, 60l. in the archdeaconry of Hereford, 94l. in the archdeaconry of Gloucester, 10l. in the archdeaconry of Shrewsbury, in the diocese of Coventry, 20l. in the archdeaconry of Shrewsbury, in the diocese of Hereford, 26l. in the archdeaconry of Stafford, 10l. 13s. 4d. in the archdeaconry of Coventry, 4l. in the archdeaconry of Cardian, 24l. in the archdeaconry of Chester in the counties of Chester and Lancaster, 24l. in the archdeaconry of Derby, 50l. in the archdeaconry of Northampton, 30l. in the archdeaconry of Bedford, 30l. in the archdeaconry of Buckingham, and 54l. in the archdeaconry of Berks; and if they cannot so be fully paid, they shall have one moiety of the residue in the archdeaconries of St. Davids, Breknok and Carmerden, Suffolk and Sudbury, Norwich and Norfolk, Huntingdon, Lincoln, Stowe, Leycestre, Oxford, and the dioceses of Bath and Wells, Ely and St. Asaph, and the other moiety as above.

Aug. 28. Grant to Ellis Langworth, esquire, Thomas Longhton, Richard Wodde and Robert Colwich, in payment of 866l. 13s. 4d. lent by them, of a like sum from the first moneys arising from any tenth, tax or