

1377.

Membrane 6—cont.

Oct. 20. The like to Adam Fraward, of his outlawry in Yorkshire, for not appearing when impleaded by the prior of St. Oswald's, Nostell, on a plea of trespass.

Oct. 25. The like to Henry Botiller of Staynton, of his outlawry in Yorkshire, for not appearing when impleaded by William Boxoner of Tykhill for a debt of 12 marks and 4s.

Oct. 28. The like to John Catour son of John Catour, of his outlawry for not appearing when impleaded by Geoffrey Grymelford, citizen and grocer of London, for a debt of 30*l*.

Nov. 4. The like to Philip Neuport, one of the executors of the will of William de Sheynton, archdeacon of Hereford, of his outlawry in Shropshire, for not appearing when they were impleaded by Hawisia de Sheynton to restore to her 30*l*.

Nov. 6. The like to Robert Dalby of Godmechestre, co. Huntingdon, of his outlawry in Wiltshire, for not appearing when impleaded by Reginald Drury of Salisbury, for a debt of 45*s*.

Nov. 13. The like to Thomas Hunte of Bricull, of his outlawry in Warwickshire, for not appearing when impleaded by Robert Ingram of Coventre, for a debt of 100*s*.

Nov. 16. The like to John Norman of Hereford, Richard Dynant of Lemestre and Richard Munnmouth, of their outlawry in London, for not appearing when impleaded by William Tyryngton of London to render their account of moneys had when they were his receivers.

Nov. 8. The like to John de Chilterne, of his outlawry in Hertfordshire, for not appearing when impleaded by Thomas, abbot of St. Albans, for a debt of 250 marks, he having now surrendered himself to the Flete prison, as certified by Robert Bealknap, chief justice of the Bench.

Oct. 15. Promise to Amandus Fityng, canon of St. Paul's, London, who has lent the king 100 marks for the expedition over sea, to repay the same within a year, and that he may be more promptly paid, Thomas, bishop of Exeter, the king's treasurer, or the treasurer for the time being, is to make competent assignment to him for payment thereof in places where he shall deem it most convenient. [Fadera.] By p.s. and by bill of treasurer.

The like to the following to repay the following sums:—

The abbot of Hyde	-	-	-	-	-	50 l .
Richard Spicer, merchant of Bristol	-	-	-	-	-	45 l .
Roger Beauchampe	-	-	-	-	-	100 marks.
Richard de Stafford	-	-	-	-	-	100 marks.

Oct. 16. The prior of Ipswich	-	-	-	-	-	40 l .
Westminster. John Ropere, of Canterbury	-	-	-	-	-	40 l .
Thomas Elys of Sandwich	-	-	-	-	-	40 l .
Simon, archbishop of Canterbury	-	-	-	-	-	500 marks.

Oct. 20. The abbot of Keynesham	-	-	-	-	-	20 marks.
Westminster.

Oct. 24. The abbot of Glastonbury	-	-	-	-	-	100 l .
Westminster.

Oct. 26. William Dyghton, clerk	-	-	-	-	-	100 marks.
Westminster. John de Beverle, esquire	-	-	-	-	-	100 marks.

The mayor and commonalty of Bristol	-	-	-	-	-	621 l . 13 s . 4 d .
-------------------------------------	---	---	---	---	---	---