

1377.

Membrane 32d—cont.

of Welle in that county, as to the names and sufficiency of the merchants, mariners and others found in the said ships, whether any wools have been found amongst the goods, and whether of English or Scotch growth; and to seize and safely keep the same until further order, and to deliver goods and merchants to Henry de Percy, earl of Northumberland, one of the wardens of the marches of Scotland, or to his deputies; also to enquire touching any ships or goods, whether of the Scots or the king's enemies, taken elsewhere in the county and delivered without the king's licence or command.

By C.

Vacated because otherwise below.

The like to John Conestable of Halsham, John Seynt Quyntyn, Robert de Hilton and Thomas de Beverlay, and to Walter de Leycestre and John de Orwell, king's serjeants-at-arms, to enquire by jury of the county of York, in respect of the like matters in Kyngeston-upon-Hull.

Vacated because otherwise below.

The like to the abbot of Thorneton, John Poucher, John Boys, Robert de Haldanby and William Vyncent of Waltham, and to Walter de Leycestre and John de Orwell, king's serjeants-at-arms, to enquire by jury of the county of Lincoln, in respect of the like matters in Grymesby.

Vacated because otherwise below.

Nov. 8. Commission to Robert Bealknap, William de Skipwyth, Roger de Kirke-
Westminster. ton, Roger de Fulthorp, Richard Sidenham, Thomas Houton and Clement Spice to examine at the church of St. Martin le Grand, London, and correct in the presence of the mayor and sheriffs of London, any error found to exist in the record or judgment in the suit before them in the hustings in the late reign, between Richard de Weston of London, goldsmith, and Roesia his wife, and Thomas de Farndon, touching seven shops and a garden in the suburb of London, and to do speedy justice between the parties according to the law and custom of the city of London.

The like to the same, in respect of the like suit between the same parties touching two messuages and ten shops in London.

MEMBRANE 31d.

Nov. 3. Appointment of William de Percy, Walter de Ursewyk, Nicholas de Westminster. Haryngton, William de Tunstall, William de Thornton, Hugh de Thornton, Gilbert de Thornton, Thomas de Clapham, Matthew Caunsfeld and Richard Baillyf of Lonesdale, on complaint by divers friends of one Alan Proctour, who was wickedly killed at Dent, to arrest and commit to the Marshalsea prison William Redman of Fairthwayt, Robert son of William de Doufbigyng of Bentham, William son of John Forester of Aldewenyngton, Christopher son of Edmund Forester of Bentham, Edward son of William de Redemane of Fairthwayt, Christina sometime the wife of William de Doufbiging of Bentham, Elizabeth sometime the wife of Edmund Forester of Bentham, and Robert his son, Robert son of Robert Forester of Tatham, Henry 'Kyttokson de Redman' of Kirkeby in Lonesdale and Matilda his wife, Richard son of Thomas de Laghfot, John Rast of Kendale, Agnes sometime the wife of John Hunt of Wytgyton and John son of William Forster of Betham, who were indicted for the said murder in the late reign, before Robert de Arthyngton, late one of the coroners of the county of York, which indictment was removed by the late king into his chancery; but the said persons are still at large unpunished, and are conspiring to kill complainants and burn their houses.

Renewed because at another time it was sealed in the late reign.