Membrane 6—cont.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because the king granted the 40 marks (contained in the above letters patent and others) to John Scalby 1 May, 11 Richard II.

Inspeximus and confirmation, in favour of Simon atte Wode, one of the yeomen of the butlery of the late king, retained, of letters patent dated 16 March, 35 Edward III., being a grant to him, for life, of 4 marks yearly at the Exchequer.

By the Great Council.

Membrane 5.

Inspeximus and confirmation, in favour of Stynaux Tydryk, esquire of Edward, prince of Wales, the king's father, of letters patent of the king when prince, dated Carnarvon, 26 February 1377, inspecting and confirming letters patent of his said father dated Carnarvon, 5 June 1376, being a grant to him, for life, of 10l. yearly at the Exchequer of Carnarvon.

By the Great Council.

Pardon at the supplication of the earl of Northumberland, the king's kinsman, to John del Estable for the death of Thomas de Cawode. By p.s.

May 3. Westminster.

Pardon to Robert Salle, knight, for all negligence, misprisions, trespasses or defaults in having left without licence the castle of Merk in the march of Calais when governor thereof and come into England, whereby, by the treachery and rebellion of those to whom he had committed it to keep, it was forcibly detained by them against the king, to be delivered to the French, until recovered for the king by the captain of Calais; and of all forfeiture whether of body or goods incurred thereby, except of the goods which he had in it at the time of its said detention, yet of the harness and armours (hernesiis et armaturis) therein which were his, the king grants him for his own person a complete harness for war, viz. a pair of iron braces, a pair of iron shoes (sabatons), a complete harness of iron jambes with pully pieces (poleyns), cuisses and faules (voiders), a coat of iron and a pair of plates covered with gold cloth, a red breastplate, a jack of gold with buckles and pendants of silver gilt, a basinet with an ensign of steel, together with the staples of the basinet, a chapelet of silver gilt, a helmet with crest, a pair of plated gauntlets, a sword and a war dagger, a Bordeaux axe, a shield of steel-plated horn, a red lance with Bordeaux head and a white pavis with the head of a black eagle erased.

By p.s. [349.]

Exemplification of letters patent casually lost, dated 29 May, 51 Edward III., being a grant for life to Thomas Grene, groom of the avenary of that king's household, of 5 marks yearly at the Exchequer.

Inspeximus and confirmation, in favour of William de Norton, yeoman of the king and of his father, of letters patent (in French) of the king when prince, dated Kennington manor, 25 February, 51 Edward III., inspecting and confirming letters patent (also in French) of Edward, prince of Wales, dated Westminster, 5 June, 50 Edward III., being a grant to him for life of 10l. yearly out of the issues of the prince's manor of Cheillesmore, and also of a convenient chamber with chimney for his abode within the manor.

By the Great Council.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because he has other letters patent granting him 10l. for life of the free-farm of Coventre, dated 16 March, 2 Richard II.

The like, in favour of William Halle, groom of the bakery of the king's father, of letters patent (in French) of the king when prince, dated