1378.

Membrane 8d—cont.

and equip them with arms, and to distrain those who in lands and goods are capable, although in body not capable, for the furnishing of arms, with power to arrest and imprison the disobedient. By the Great Council.

Membrane 5d.

May 1. Westminster. Commission to William Flamvill, knight, Thomas Walssh, knight, John Folevyll and Robert de Lokyngton to enquire what persons are bound to repair the hall (aulam) of the gaol of Leicester, which is now dilapidated and much exposed, and to compel them thereto, by view of the sheriff of Leicestershire, by distress and other means if necessary.