1378.

Membrane 35—cont.

Inspeximus and confirmation, in favour of Master John Goderiche, the late king’s cook, retained, of the following:—

1. Letters patent dated 26 September, 39 Edward III., being an exemplification of letters patent, dated 27 May, 37 Edward III., being a grant to him, for life, in reversion, after the death of John de Astwyk, of the bailiwick of the hundred of Gertre, co. Leicester.

2. Letters patent dated 17 December, 41 Edward III., being a grant to him, for life, of 20l. yearly at the Exchequer.

By the Great Council.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because at his supplication the king granted the above 20l. to William his son, by letters patent, dated 3 April, 14 Richard II.

Confirmation to John Kent of the grant to him, for life, by letters patent of the late king dated 27 November, 50 Edward III., of the custody during the minority of the heir, of the lands of John Frounale, deceased, tenant in chief, with the marriage of the heir, without rendering aught therefor.

By the Great Council.

Inspeximus and confirmation, in favour of William de Drayton, esquire of the king’s father, retained, of letters patent (in French) of the said Edward, prince of Wales, dated Westminster. 5 June, 50 Edward III., being a grant to him, for life, of the manor of Whitechurch by Walyngford, saving to the prince knights’ fees, advowsons, wardships, marriages, forfeitures and escheats, he paying to the king any surplus over 20l., the amount of the annuity previously granted to him.

By p.s.

Appointment of William de Emley, keeper of the king’s manor of Clipston, in Shirewode forest, to cut down a plot of underwood called ‘Horthornes’ in Beskwode park, by view of John de Gaitford supplying the place of the steward of that forest and keeper of the park, to sell it to the best advantage, and with the proceeds to repair by view of the said John, certain defects in the said manor of Clipston and lodge of Beskwode.

By bill of p.s.

Revocation of the protection for one year, granted 16 October to Richard Hesyn, of the county of Northumberland.

By C.

Inspeximus and confirmation, in favour of John de Appelby, esquire of the late king, of letters patent dated 22 April, 49 Edward III., being a grant to him, for life, of 20 marks yearly at the Exchequer.

By the Great Council.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because the king granted to him 10 marks yearly from the manor of Tremworth, 100s. yearly from the fee farm of Oxford and 4l. yearly from the issues of Oxford, 26 April, 8 Richard II.

Membrane 34.

May 10. Westminster.

Inspeximus and confirmation, in favour of Sir William de Cammel, canon of Welles, of letters patent (in French) of John, late earl of Kent, dated Bedehampton manor, 1 May, 26 Edward III., to the effect that the said Sir William being impeached before the said earl’s stewards, in his court of Cammel by certain of the homage of the manor, of being a bondman thereof, the said earl is certified by trustworthy men of that country that he is of free condition.

For ¼ mark.
