Membrane 14—cont.

1378.

Westminster. knight, Roger de Boys, knight, John Bacon of Broom, John de Pychale, clerk, Roger de Wulferston, Robert de Aishefeld, Henry Sorgeaunt of Framlyngham, and Thomas de Wroxham, of his manor of Huntyngefeld, co. Suffolk, now held in chief, which William de Huntyngefeld held of the said earl as of his honor of Eye before he (the said earl) was seised thereof, which honor the late king granted in tail male to Robert de Ufford, late earl of Suffolk, father of the present earl.

June 18. Presentation of William de Bloxham, chaplain, to the church of Hanebergh, in the diocese of Lincoln.

At the instance of John Fordham, clerk.

June 9. Grant, until further order, to Master Walter de Skirlawe, doctor of laws, king's clerk, abiding in Chancery, of 40 marks yearly from the issues of the hamper in Chancery, in confirmation of the like grant by the late king to him of that sum at the Exchequer.

By the Great Council.

June 16. Presentation of William Power, vicar of Curdeford, in the diocese of Chichester, to the church of Swynecombe, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien priory of Okebourn being in his hands on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with Robert Bushe.

April 12. Inspeximus and confirmation, in favour of Thomas Postel, servant of the late king in the office of the kitchen, of letters patent dated 26 May, 41 Edward III., being a grant to him, for life, of 60s. yearly at the Exchequer.

By the Great Council.

June 14. Pardon to Roger de Aspeden, heir of Aspeden (sic), of the execution of the judgment which is or may be rendered against him upon his conviction under the following circumstances, in case he be found guilty of bigamy. He was indicted for breaking the house of John de Hunctote and robbing him at Rissheton of half a mark of silver, and for robbing William Broun of half a mark of silver at Oswaldswill, and for that with other thieves of the county of Chester he broke the house of John de Okenbothum at Oswaldtwill, and for lying in ambush to kill Robert de Rissheton, a bastard, whereupon he was convicted of the said felonies before the justices of the king's uncle John, duke of Lancaster, in whose prison he is now detained because of bigamy alleged against him after he claimed before the said justices to be a clerk.
