

1378.

Membrane 24d—cont.

William, William Tregoud of Kirkeby, Hugh de Brerelay, John Clarel and John de Bentelay, chaplain, with others, assaulted him at Frykkelay, co. York, and lay in wait to kill him. For 40s. paid in the hanaper.

MEMBRANE 22d.

Nov. 8.
Gloucester.

Commission to Robert Lodeneys of Wynchelse and Richard Bernard of Shorham to make search in the ports and towns of Sussex, as well as along the sea coast, in accordance with the ordinance of the Council that no person pass beyond seas with gold or silver in money or bullion, or with jewels or letters of exchange, under pain of being arrested and brought before the Council, and to certify their proceedings herein from time to time; and also to make search that no bills or other instruments from the Roman court be brought into the realm, and that no persons proceed thither without giving security that they will not procure anything prejudicial to the king or his subjects, under penalty of incurring forfeiture of body and goods in accordance with the statute of 27 Edward III.

On the information of the treasurer.

1379.

Feb. 13.
Westminster.

The like commission to John Henys and William Tresuthen in Penryn and other ports and sea coasts of Cornwall.

Henry Chinals sued out this commission, and affirmed on oath that the persons assigned were sufficient both for the king and for the people.

The like to Michael Gryke and Gerard Pole in Fowy and other ports and sea coasts of Cornwall.

Henry Chinals sued out this commission (as above).

1378.

MEMBRANE 19d.

Nov. 12.
Gloucester.

Commission of oyer and terminer to John de Grey of Codenore, knight, Henry Grey of Wylton, knight, William de Burgh, Robert de Morton and Robert Martell, on information that divers weirs, mills, pools, pales and kidels have been newly placed and erected in the water of Trent, co. Nottingham, to the obstruction of the course of ships and boats therein. They are to enquire which of them were so placed in the time of Edward I., and remove those subsequently erected.

Nov. 27.
Westminster.

Appointment of Richard Hembrigge, serjeant-at-arms, Richer de Wychyngham and John Ellerton, serjeant-at-arms, for reasons proposed in the Parliament at Gloucester, to bring Margery de Nerford before the king and council, and to arrest John Brewes, John le Heyr, clerk, Thomas Howard, clerk, Walter Howard, and Richard Thake, and bring them also before the king and council.

Dec. 6.
Westminster.

Commission to Richard de Ravenser, clerk, Thomas de Ingelby and Master John de Waltham, canon of the church of York, to examine on oath, —in the presence of the abbot of St. Mary's, York, the sheriff of York, and the mayor of York, and others, if so required by John son of John de Hastynges, late earl of Pembroke, a minor in the king's custody, and William la Souche of Haryngton (sic), (between whom and Thomas son of Robert Roos of Ingmanthorp a suit is pending in Chancery,) —the following persons, viz., William de Aldeburgh, knight, William de Bradeston, parson of the church of Wynfeld, and John Felicekirk, parson of the church of