and Soissons, lord of Coucy, dated at Prague in Bohemia, 14 January 1369, being a grant, for life, to Canonne de Robertssart, knights, of 400 marks, in lieu of a grant (resumed) of the rent and profit of a mill in Maray, amounting to 660 francs of France.

2. An indenture dated Cambrai, 9 January 1370, whereby William, the prior, and the convent of Kirkeby Monachorum, in the diocese of Lichfield, a cell of the Benedictine monastery of St. Nicholas, Angers, for a sum of money demise their priory-house to Theodore Robertssart called 'Canon,' knight, of the diocese of Cambrai, for twenty-five years from Michaelmas 1376 under these covenants, viz. that he, the said knight, pay every year at Midsummer a gold cloth for the ornaments of the priory-church, keep up all the buildings of the priory at his own expense, and support all the burdens to which it is subject; that he guard (garandisare) the said priory-house with all its rights and liberties, together with all its franchises to the best of his power and at his own charges. If in any way it comes to pass that the said abbot grants the priory to him for life, this term of twenty-five years is wholly annulled thereby, and he shall be bound to surrender the grant mentioning the term; that he shall in no way alienate, lease or sell the goods of the priory, save such as are commonly allowed to belong to the lease, nor lease it in whole or in part to any one during the term; that he will prosecute at law those who in times past have damaged the said house and dissipated its goods, and whatever he shall in that or any other way recover, he will lay out in repair thereof.
