

1379.

Membrane 35—cont.

Thomas de Thweng, clerk, tenant in chief, being in the king's hands; on an exchange of benefices with John Brathewell. By p.s. [836.]

Appointment, with the advice of Council, of the king's clerk, William Hanney, to take and place in safe custody the lead and timber of the houses within the king's manor of Guldeford, which (with the exception of the great chamber) have fallen to the ground, and all the tiles in danger of falling off them, and to employ at the king's charges sufficient workmen therefor. By bill of p.s.

Aug. 1. The like of John Auncell, knight, farmer of the castle of Somerton, to Westminster. take, in the county of Lincoln, masons, carpenters and other workmen for the repair of that castle, and set them to work there at the king's charges, providing carriage for timber and stone therefor.

MEMBRANE 34.

July 28. Presentation of Edmund Byngham, parson of the church of Brede, in Westminster. the diocese of Chichester, and keeper of the chapel of Wodehede, in the diocese of Lincoln, to the church of Crondale, in the diocese of Canterbury, on an exchange of benefices with Paul Dunton.

July 28. Presentation of the said Paul Dunton to the said church of Brede,
Westminster. in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the abbot of Fécamp being in his hands on account of the war with France.

July 27. Grant, during pleasure, during the war with France, with the advice of Westminster. Council, to Juliana, late the wife of Eustace Carsomer, of 10 marks yearly, payable by the treasurer of Calais, for the maintenance of herself and her three children, until she recover her lands in Guynes and Merk, of the yearly value of 40*l.*, lost on account of the war, the said Eustace having by grant of the late king and also of the king received 12*d.* daily from the said treasurer for his maintenance, because of his good service and on account of the said losses. By p.s.

July 28. Letters for John Ketten, prebendary of Taghmon, in the cathedral church
Westminster. of Fernes, Ireland, staying in England, nominating William and John Karlell, clerks, his attorneys in Ireland for three years.

Thomas de Newenham, clerk, received the attorneys.

July 30. Licence for Thomas, bishop of Exeter, at his manor of Chudele,
Westminster. co. Devon, or elsewhere within his bishopric on his own lands to make and crenellate a fortalice. By p.s.

July 28. Grant to Philip Walweyn the elder, king's esquire, on his surrender of Westminster. letters patent dated 28 June, 2 Richard II. (p. 257), of the custody of the manor and park of Asshehurst, co. Surrey, as heretofore granted, and, in lieu of the 100*s.* a year at the exchequer of Kermerdyn, of the custody, rent free for life, during the war with France, of the alien priory of Title from Easter last, on condition that he find a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the priory, keep up the houses and buildings thereof, and pay the tenths and other quotas with the clergy. If the priory pass out of the king's hands by the cessation of the war, the grant of 100*s.* a year revives, notwithstanding any other annuities charged on the said exchequer, and the present grant annuls, as from Easter last, letters patent dated 30 October, 1 Richard II., granting to Thomas Gibbes, chaplain, the custody of the said priory, lands, etc., during the war, for a yearly rent of 5 marks. By p.s.