Membrane 5—cont.

1380.

March 15.
Westminster.

Grant, in fee simple, to William de Wyndesore, who has married Alice de Perrers, of lands and tenements which she acquired whilst single, and those which others acquired to her use, forfeited by the judgment in Parliament against her, viz.: divers tenements in the city of London, and the reversion of certain tenements there, after the death of Alice, late the wife of Richard de Kesleyngby, citizen of London; a tenement at Bermundeseye in Southwark, late of William Forster, citizen of London, the manors of Gonyldesbury and Pallyngeswyk, and other lands, rents and services, late of John de Northwyck of London, goldsmith, called 'Northbrokes,' in the parish of Fulham, a moiety of the like in Suthcothe, called 'in (sic) Ris-lip, Harwe, Colbrok, Stanewell and Horton,' and a tenement in Brayford, co. Middlesex; the manor of Bourne-halle and lands late of Richard de Ecceshale and Clemence his wife in Bussiche, Oxeye, Watford, Hertesheved and Crokley Grene, co. Hertford; two thirds of the manor of Westminelond in St. Laurence and Steple, with the reversion of the other third, and of the manor of Umpynstre, after the death of Lora, wife of William Morewode, and lands late of John de Havvyng, knight, in Havvyng atte Bourre, co. Essex; the manor of Colworth, three carucates of land, forty acres of meadow, 60s. rent, the advowson of a chapel in Colworth, the manor of Farndon by Blyfild, and a tenement in Northampton, late of Richard Wodevyle, in the county of Northampton; a third of the manor of Compton Murdak and the reversion of the other two thirds after the death of Alice, late the wife of John Murdak, knight, in the county of Warwick; the manor of Keyngham, and other lands, rents and services in Keyngham, late of Gilbert Chastelhyn, knight; lands in the town and county of Oxford, and the reversion of a tenement in the town after the death of John Bray; the manor of Esthammey, lately called 'Philiberdes,' and a virgate of land in Esthammey, the manor of Drayton, late of Gilbert de Ellesfeld, and two carucates of land lately called 'Perleyes and Hendykes,' besides other lands in Drayton, and lands, rents, and services called 'Seynte Eleyne' in Abyndon, lands, rents, and services late of Peter Cok and William Golafre in Abyndon, Sutton, and Drayton, co. Berks; the manor of Meneostoke, co. Southampton; the reversion of the manors of Lytton and Pomerestok, co. Dorset; [the reversion] of the manors of Knolle and Luddford, co. Somerset; [the reversion] of three manors in Fennysutton, co. Wilts, after the death of Robert de Assleton, knight, with the knights' fees and advowsons appurtenant thereto; the reversion of the manor of Stoke Maundevyle by Wendervre, co. Buckingham, after the death of Robert Derwalshawe; lands, rents, and services, together with the bond tenants, late of John Bret, knight, in Burton Nomeray, co. Leicester; and lands, rents, and services in Burghwell, co. Cambridge.

Further grant to the same, for the life of the said Alice Perrers, of the manor of Rodeston, co. Northampton, for the life (lives) of Amera, late the wife of Walter Huet, knight, William de la More, parson of the church of Estham, and Hugh de Presshenede, chaplain of Leyntwardyn, of the manor of Bixe, co. Oxford: and for a term of years (not stated) of the manor of Morton, co. Northampton. The aforesaid grants are made to him in consideration of his going with Thomas, earl of Buckingham, to Brittany, and his undertaking to find at his own expense 100 men-at-arms for half a year from the 200 men at arms and 200 archers with which, by virtue of an indenture made with the king, he has continued in his service. By p.s.

June 20.
Westminster.

Licence for the king's clerk, Robert de Crull, prebendary of Swerdes in the church of Dublin, Ireland, to export corn, fish, and other issues of his prebend to England, Gascony or Bayonne, provided no new ordinance or proclamation by the king's council in Ireland is made to the contrary.