Feb. 8. Grant, for life, from 18 April last, to William Corby, king's squire, and Westminster. Agnes his wife, of two messuages in the high street of Exeter, one called 'Socconys In' and the other by the Gildhall, seised into the king's hands, as appears by inquisition of Richard de Kendale, escheator in the counties of Devon and Cornwall, under these circumstances. Roger atte Wille, sometime citizen of Exeter, dying without heir seised of the first-named messuage, John atte Wille, of the order of Friars Minors there, claimed it as son of Roger, and, asserting that, notwithstanding his profession, he would be privileged by the court of Rome to succeed as heir, entered thereon and died seised thereof, it being of the yearly value of 53s. 4d.; Isabel, wife of Roger, being seised of the other messuage, according to immemorial custom in Exeter, bequeathed it to the said John, who by virtue of her will entered thereon and died seised thereof, it being of the yearly value of 40s. By p.s.

Jan. 22. Licence, for 20 marks paid in the hanaper by Thomas de Erlestoke, Westminster. chaplain, for the alienation in mortmain by the prior and convent of Bradelegh of 10 marks yearly rent from their lands in Homynton, co. Wilts, to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the parish church of St. Thomas, Salisbury, for the souls of the late king and Philippa his consort, Robert de Godmanston, late citizen of Salisbury, and Joan his wife, and John Tynekere, formerly her husband, and their ancestors, and for the good estate of the king and the said Thomas during life and their souls after death; with power for the chaplain and his successors to distrain if the rent be in arrear.

Feb. 11. Licence for Robert Hales, prior of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem Westminster. in England, unable to attend in person, to make attorneys in his place, and that each of them may make others, and that brother Hildebrand Inge be admitted his attorney for one year, with like power.

John Scarle, clerk, received the attorney.
