

This edition gives that portion only of Roger of Wendover’s Chronicle which can be accounted an original authority.

The Letters printed in these volumes were chiefly written between 1295 and 1333.

The date of the composition of this Chronicle is placed about the year 1300. The writer appears to have been an eye-witness of many events which he describes. The language in which it is written was the dialect of Gloucestershire at that time.

Robert of Brunne, or Bourne, co. Lincoln, was a member of the Gilbertine Order established at Sempringham. His Chronicle is described by its editor as a work of fiction, a contribution not to English history, but to the history of English.
