Memorandum 31—cont.

Michaelmas, together with a south chamber in the houses lately built therein by Thomas Baret, with the cellars and chambers under the same, together with the kitchen and curtilage adjoining, to be covered and kept up by the abbess and convent, and that he should have the office of chaplain of the parish church of All Saints, Little Cranford, otherwise called 'St. Margaret's chapel', for this grant he has paid 20l. to the said abbess to show the great utility and need of the abbey, besides doing it other benefits.

For 1 mark paid in the hamper.

July 2.
Chelmsford.

Writ of aid, directed to all the king's subjects in England, for the duke of Lancaster, who is by the king's command coming to him in haste with an armed power, commanding them to give him safe-conduct on his march.

The like directed to all in the county of Northumberland.

July 13.
St. Albans.

Grant to Bernard Brocas, keeper and farmer of the king's castle and manor of Olywham, that he and the constable of the castle for the time being may appoint and remove at their pleasure the porter of the castle, who is to have 2d. daily wages from its issues; on information of divers damages done therein through default of the porter.

By K.

July 15.
St. Albans.

Pardon to John de Bazgesoure, late keeper of Northgate gaol, Bruggenorth, for the escape of Hugh de Lenthade alias Hugh le Barker, detained there for theft.

By p.s.

July 16.
St. Albans.

Inspeccius and confirmation, in favour of William de Merley the younger, servant of Thomas, late bishop of Durham, of a writing of the said bishop dated Durham, by the hand of William de Elmewen, his chancellor, 19 January, in the thirty-sixth year of his pontificate, granting to him, for life, the offices of parker of Wolseyngham and Wastrop park and forester of Roughside ward in Wardedale forest.

For 1 mark paid in the hamper.

July 20.
Henley.

Mandate to William Berard, escheator in Norfolk and Suffolk, to restore the temporalities of the priory of St., Ipswich, to John de Monewi, de, prior elect and confirmed to the tenants.

July 22.
Berkhamstead.

Pardon to Paul Salesbury, one of the insurgents, for the following felonies and trespasses committed by him on Friday, 14 June. With Thomas his servant and other insurgents unknown, hired by him, he went to the lodging (hospticium) in the parish of St. Mary Bethawe, London, of William Baret, alderman of London, entered it with swords and staves, seized it to his own use, drove out the said William and his wife and all his servants, made them stand in the street outside the gate, making the said wife kneel a long time before him, and compelling them both to thank him for their long inhabiting of the said house and for their lives. Moreover, they made him surrender to the said Paul two indentures touching his estate in the house by demise of his father, and a schedule of a recognizance made in Chancery by his said father for 200l., and also his whole estate in the house, as well a sword, value