Licence, for 5 marks paid to the king by Robert Preston, chaplain, and Richard Assh, for the alienation in mortmain by them of three messuages, four cottages, a virgate of land, four acres of meadow and 3s. rent in the city and suburb of Hereford and Luydgodfray, not held in chief, to two chaplains to celebrate divine service daily in the chapel of St. Anne below the shrine of St. Thomas of Hereford in the church of Hereford, for the good estate of the king and the donors while living and for their souls after death, and to maintain other works of piety according to their ordinance.

Grant, for life, to Matthew Swetenham, yeoman of the king's chamber, of the office of laundener within the king's park of Claryndon, provided no one has the like estate therein by grant of the late king or the king. By p.s.

This enrolment (in the absence of the letters patent, which have been casually lost), was cancelled, because with the said Matthew's assent the king granted the office to Walter Worthe, 7 October, 6 Richard II.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by John Malet and John de Kevermond of a messuage, four tofts, three bovates and an acre of land and seven acres of meadow in Jirford and Bynbrok, not held in chief, of the yearly value of 11s., as appears by inquisition of William de Skipwith the younger, escheator in the county of Lincoln, to the prioress and nuns of Irford, in part satisfaction, viz. 20s., of lands to the yearly value of 10l. which they had licence from the late king to acquire in mortmain.

Licence, for 8 marks which he has paid to the king, for John, bishop of Burgor, to unite the churches of Penleigh and Llanbogodwynny Bodverin, not exceeding the yearly value of 50s. and 50s. 8d. respectively, to the adjoining church of Llanyestyn, taxed at £1 13s. 4d., all in his diocese, near together, and of his advowson, as on account of the poverty of the two first named no one will accept them.

Presentation of John Wamburgh, vicar of Wendover, in the diocese of Lincoln, to the vicarage of Christ Church by Karlioun, in the diocese of Llandaff, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien priory of Goldecklyve being in his hands on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with William Poterne.

Safe-conduct by land and sea for John de Gysburn, citizen of York, Adam Wellom and William Willesthorp, their servants and deputies, the king, at the supplication of William, bishop of Winchester, and on his security, having granted to them licence to buy 200 loads (carratas) of lead in the counties of York, Nottingham and Derby, and convey the same by way of London for the roofing of certain houses built by the bishop in his newly founded college in Oxford.

Grant, during pleasure, to John de Evesham, one of the yeomen of the king's chamber, of the custody of the lions in the Tower and the office of yeoman of the arms there, in the same manner as William de la Garderobe, deceased.

Licence, for three years, for the king's mother and her officers to take (with reasonable payment), entertainment for herself, her household and her horses, within three leagues of Walyngford, without the fee of the church, when she comes to stay at Walyngford castle.

Presentation of Reginald Porter, chaplain, to the chantry at the altar of All Saints in the church of Norham, in the diocese of Durham, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the see.

Presentation of Thomas de Clifford to the church of Bliston, in the diocese of Exeter.
