1881.
June 24.
Waltham.

July 3.
Chelmsford.

June 24.
Waltham.
The bailiffs, citizens, good men, and whole commonalty of the city of Bath.
The mayor, sheriff, burgesses, good men, and whole commonalty of Bristol.
The mayor and bailiffs of Oxford.
Edward Courteneye, earl of Devon, Philip Courteneye, John Pomeray, William Asthorp, Martin de Ferrers and the sheriff, in the county of Devon.

William de Monte Acuto, earl of Salisbury, Peter de Courteneye, Guy de Brien, Thomas Tryvet, Ivo Fitz Waryn, John Burghershe, William Latymere and the sheriffs, in the counties of Somerset and Dorset.

The earl of Salisbury, Ivo Fitz Waryn, Robert Fitz Payn, William Latymere and John Placy, in the county of Dorset.
The earl of Salisbury, Peter Courtenay, Ivo Fitz Waryn, Thomas Tryvet, John de Rodencuy, John de la Marc, John Borewasshe, Roger Dore, John Tomare and Edmund Flory, in the county of Somerset.

June 23.
Waltham.

The mayor and bailiffs of Bruggewater.

July 5.
Chelmsford.
John de Grey of Codenore, Richard de Grey of Shirland, John de Burele, constable of Nottingham castle, Edmund de Appelby, John de la Pole, Hugh Neumarche and Robert Martell, in the counties of Nottingham and Derby.
The earl of Warwick, John Battedour, John de Bermyngeham, Henry de Arderm, William de Clynton, Robert Burgiloun and John Catesby, in the county of Warwick.

* With an additional clause empowering them to seize notorious offender without delay.