MEMBRANE 11.

May 19. Westminster. Inspeximus and confirmation, in favour of John Machon of Quydhamp-ton and Edith his wife, of the following indentes of sale and grant by Richard the prior, and the convent of St. Denis by Southampton:—

1. Dated Saturday after Michaelmas, 39 Edward III., being a sale to them, for the life of Edith, of a white loaf and a gallon of ale daily or once a week when common liveries shall be received, a canon's pittance of food and drink daily from the kitchen, and six virgates of coloured cloth of the suit of esquires on All Saints for her robe, provided that John does not leave the service of the convent.

2. Dated Monday the feast of St. Faith, 45 Edward III., being a grant to John Machon of Porteswode and Margery his daughter for their lives and the life of the longer liver, of a white loaf and a black loaf called 'sweynlof' daily or once a week as above, and of the reversion, on the death of Edith the wife of John, of the livery granted to her as above.

3. Dated Thursday, St. Hilary, 46 Edward III., being a grant for life to the said John of the chamber over the middle gate of the priory with free ingress and egress for himself and family, a white loaf, such as a canon has, and a gallon of ale daily or once a week as above, a canon's pittance daily from the kitchen, and a robe yearly, such as one of the free servants of the prior has, or 10s. in lieu thereof, also two cartloads of firewood yearly, with power, in case of default, to distrain on their manor of Northam or other their manors in the county of Southampton.

For 40s. paid in the hanaper.

April 12. Westminster. Grant, with the assent of Aubrey de Veer, to the king's knight, Hugh de Segrave, in fee, of the manor called 'Overhall' in Lyston, co. Essex, held in chief by the service of making 'wafres' and serving the king at his coronation, extended at 16l. 6s. 4d. yearly, as appears by inquisition of Robert Goldyng-ton, escheator in the said county, granted to the said Aubrey by letters patent dated 30 November, surrendered, at the yearly rent of 20l., after the said Aubrey's death; and appointment of him for life as constable of the king's castle of Walityngford and steward of his honors of Wallyngford and St. Valery, receiving therefor 40l. yearly, in the same manner as Aubrey, who was appointed to the same by letters patent dated 22 July, 49 Edward III., surrendered, and 10l. yearly in addition, as granted to Aubrey by letters patent dated 23 July, 49 Edward III., also surren-dered.
