1382.

May 24. The like to the sheriffs of Lincoln, Kent, Northampton, Oxford, Buckingham, Southampton, Cornwall and Suffolk.

June 24. Mandate to Robert Tresilian, justice of the King's Bench, to cause the letters patent granting the above dower to be enrolled, and to permit the queen to hold, use and enjoy the manors, liberties, etc. granted therein.

Vacated because otherwise on the roll of the sixth year.

May 24. The like to the justices of assize in the counties in which she has grants of lands.

June 12. The like to the collectors of customs in the ports of London, Lenn, Kyngeston-upon-Hull, Boston, and Southampton, the sheriffs of London, and the collectors of the subsidy of cloth in the city of London, in pursuance of the grants to the queen, as above.

1381.

Nov. 20. Grant, for life, to the king's knight, Baldwin de Beresford, of the custody of the forests and park of Claryndon, and the forests of Grovele, Melchet and Bukholt, in the same manner as Alan de Buxhull, in deduction of 40 marks yearly from the sum of 100 marks granted to him for life by letters patent dated 19 October, surrendered, and for the residue of 40L, 30L yearly from the farm of Oxford.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because the king granted to him for life the manor of Fortynngton, and the custody of the aforesaid forest and park, 12 March, 18 Richard II.

1382.

May 25. Appointment of William Cokerell to receive and control the moneys collected by John Organ and Walter Sibille of the subsidy granted to the king in the late parliament of 2s. from each tun of wine and 6d. in the pond from other merchandise in the port of London and all ports thence on the river Thames as far as Gravesende and Tylbury. By K. and C.

The like of the following as controllers of the collectors named:

Laurence Sundrissh, chaplain, of William de Spaigne and William Thymmelby, collectors in the port of Boston and all places between Grymesby and Wysbech.

Ralph Crust, of Robert Selby and Thomas Waplyngton, collectors in the port of Kyngeston-upon-Hull and all places between Grymesby and Scardeburgh.

John Strite, of Peter Reede and John atte Halle in the port of Dover and all places from thence to Wynchelse.

William Bissshopdale, of John Bulkham and Sampson Hardying in the port of Newcastle-upon-Tyne and all places between Berwick-upon-Tweed and Scardeburgh.

Thomas Mordon, of Thomas Drewe and John Grantham in the port of Lenn and all places between Blakeneye and Wysbech.

Arnald Broun, of John Reper and Thomas Elvs in the port of Sandwich and all places between Gravesende and Dover.

Thomas Godenece, of Alexander Fastfoll and John Elys in the port of Great Yarmouth and all places between Ipswich and Blakeneye.

Geoffrey Starlyng the younger, of Robert Waleys and Geoffrey Starlyng in the port of Ipswich and all places from thence to Tilbury.