

1382.

Membrane 35d—cont.

in that county for not appearing before the justices of the Bench to satisfy the king for disseising John ap Willym ap Jankyn and Elizabeth his wife and others of the manor of Dorston, and to deliver him to the warden of the Flete prison.

Feb. 11. Commission of oyer and terminer to Robert Bealknap, Stephen de Westminster. Valence, William de Haldenne, William de Horne and William Makenade, on complaint by Lettice, late the wife of John Kiriell, knight, that John Cornewaille, knight, William Elys of Hynksell, William Malyn, John Philipp of Chilham, John Hemmynghurst of Mersham, John son of Ralph Faunescoumbe of Wy, Andrew Scot, Thomas Strode, Brunus Armorer, John Burnby, 'armorer,' and others, with ladders scaled by night and entered her castle of Ostryngangre, co. Kent, broke her houses and chambers, searched for her so closely that she was compelled to hide in some water, narrowly escaping death thereby, carried off twelve horses, value 40*l.*, besides other goods, and assaulted her servants.

For 20*s.* paid in the hanaper.

Feb. 12. Commission to Walter Fitz Wauter, Robert Bealknap, Robert de Ples- Westminster. yngton, Thomas Maundevill, John de Boys and Clement Spice to enquire whether the advowson of the hospital of St. Giles, Little Maldon, is appendant to the manor of Little Maldon; whether the manor is held in chief as of the crown or as of the honor of Peverel; whether John Little, Robert son of William Pycot, and Richard Nalynghurst, were ever seised of the manor and the said advowson as appendant and presented Robert Nalynghurst to the hospital; whether the latter was in the late reign instituted and inducted; whether, when he had their estate in the manor, he enfeoffed John de Burghchier, knight, of the manor and advowson appendant; whether, on the said Robert's death, John de Burghchier by Roger Keterych, his attorney, presented John de Birlyngham, clerk, to the hospital, and, on his resignation, Amory (Almaricum) de Shir lond, clerk, and whether these were instituted; whether John Burghchier enfeoffed Simon, late archbishop of Canterbury, and then bishop of London, William Wynkfeld, knight, Simon Long and Roger Keterych of the premises; whether they presented John Bosard, clerk, to the hospital on the death of Amory, and whether he was instituted; whether they re-enfeoffed John Burghchier of the premises and whether he is now seised thereof; whether during his seisin thereof the hospital was vacated by the resignation of John Bosard; whether all masters or wardens of the hospital were, and should be, instituted by the diocesan at the presentation of the patrons for the time being; and whether William de Hannay, clerk, incumbent of the hospital, has any right of occupation save by letters patent of the late king, and whether he has been so instituted.

Feb. 18. Commission to William de Worston, Thomas Dreu and Hugh Cheyne to Westminster. enquire whether Roger de Beauchamp, knight, deceased, expended divers sums of money received by him therefor from the executors of Nicholas de Tamworth, knight, late farmer of the castle, town and barton of Marleburgh, co. Wilts, in the repair of the same, and whether any sums remain unexpended.

By C.

MEMBRANE 34d.

Jan. 26. Commission to Richard Bruns, sheriff of Oxford, and Edmund Giffard, Westminster. escheator in the same county, to enquire touching waste in the manors of Drayton in Yellebury, co. Oxford, in the king's hands by the death of Giles de Ardern, knight, tenant in chief, and the minority of his daughters Margaret and Joan, his heirs.