Memorand 27—cont.

1382.

Aug. 19.
Westminster. Grant, for life, to Alexandra de la Mote, formerly the wife of Roger Archer, of 20l. yearly from the fee farm of the city of London, in lieu of a grant to her of the same sum at the Exchequer by letters patent dated 4 March, 1 Richard II., surrendered. By p.s.

Aug. 19.
Westminster. Grant, for life, to the king's knight, Simon de Burley, of the office of justice of South Wales, receiving for his fee 40l. yearly at the exchequer of Carmarthen.

Aug. 21.
Westminster. Grant, for life, to John Treverbyn, esquire, in consideration of his promise to serve the king in war at his own expense, and to prosecute, at his own expense, the recovery of the king's right to the manor of Trenay, co. Cornwall, with other lands, rents, and services in Poluan and Usse, in that county, which belong as an escheat to the crown, because Matilda, daughter and heiress of William Daubeney, knight, who would otherwise have inherited them, married the lord of Mountsal, of Brittany, the king's enemy, of the said manor and lands, of the yearly value of 20l. By p.s.

June 21.
Westminster. Mandate to Robert Tresilian, justice of the King's Bench, to cause the letters patent granting dowery to the queen to be enrolled therein, and to permit her to hold the castles, manors and lands, levy the fines, and enjoy all the liberties granted thereby.

The like to the justices of the Bench.

The like to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer.

Aug. 27.
Westminster. Grant, during pleasure, to the king's servant, Richard Clers, 'veauter,' of the office of parker of the king's park of Coventry, lately held by Walter Eton, deceased.

Aug. 28.
Westminster. Presentation of John Hopperre, chaplain, to the vicarage of Chepe-stowe, in Wales, in the diocese of Llandaff, in the king's gift by reason of the alien priory of Chepesteowe being in his hands on account of the war with France.

Aug. 28.
Westminster. Protection with clause volumnus, for one year, for John Croylyboys, going to Ireland on the king's service, in the company of the king's brother, John Holand, his lieutenant there.

By writ, &c.

July 21.
Westminster. Inspeiximus and confirmation, in favour of John, Simon, and Richard de Burle, knights, and Baldwin de Radynghton, esquire, of (1) a charter of feoffment dated London, 20 June, 5 Richard II., whereby the king's uncle, John, duke of Lancaster, John, bishop of Lincoln, Henry, bishop of Worcester, Robert de Assheton, knight, John de Ipres, knight, and Nicholas Carre, demised to them, their heirs and assigns, the manor of Parrok, with certain parcels of land by Gravesende, co. Kent, held in gavelkind, late of Thomas de Graveshende, knight; and (2) a writing of release dated London, 4 July, 6 Richard II., whereby Nicholas de Carren and Nicholas Heryng release to them all their claim to the premises. Witnesses to both (1) and (2): John de Cobecham, lord of Cobecham, knight; Thomas Shardenlowe, John de Tewdr, Richard Pope. The above confirmation is granted notwithstanding the seizure of the premises into the king's hands, because Nicholas Carren, Nicholas Heryng, and Thomas de Hentton acquired the
