Membranes 31 and 30—cont.

of the coket seal, now in the hands of Matthew Cheyne, to be by them kept until the whole is paid. French.

By K. and C.

Mandates in pursuance to the said Matthew and the said collectors.

Membrane 30—cont.

By p.s.

Oct. 2. Westminster. Pardon to Simon Walercoft, the bishop of Hereford's bailiff of Bromyord, for having permitted William son of William de Hakeleye, 'milward,' arrested on suspicion of larceny, to escape from prison.

By p.s.

Sept. 20. Westminster. London, of an acre of land within the manor of Norton Veel with the advowson of the church there, which the king lately had by grant of Peter de Veel, knight; and licence for them to appropriate the said church.

By p.s. and for 50 marks paid in the hanaper.

Membrane 29.

Aug. 12. Kingston-upon-Hull. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Ralph de Kirnynngton, portioner of a third part of the church of Broklesby, William de Lymbergh, warden of the chantry of Broklesby, John de Haghe and Nicholas Storrour of Haburgh, of the manor of Hotoft, not held in chief, of the yearly value of £6s. 8d., as found by inquisition of William de Skipwyth the younger, escheator in the county of Lincoln, to the abbot and convent of Neuhow, in full satisfaction of lands to the yearly value of 20l. which at the request of John de Roos, then steward of the household, they had licence by letters patent of the late king to acquire.

Aug. 6. Nottingham. Grant, for life, to Robert Spicer of 10 marks yearly at the Exchequer [as before, Membrane 33].

By p.s.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because the king granted that sum to him from the fee farm of Kyngston-upon-Thames, 2 March, 7 Richard II.

Aug. 17. Westminster. Grant, during the minority of the heir, without rendering ought therefor, to Roger Crophull, king's esquire, of the custody of the manors of Hemington, Bramston and Bunyton, of the value of 40l. yearly, late of John Crophull, knight, deceased, tenant in chief, in the king's hands by reason of the minority of his heir, Agnes, daughter of his son Thomas, being but twelve years old.

Aug. 26. Westminster. Grant to Thomas, master of the New Work, Strode, and Robert Rowe, of pontage for seven years for the making of a larger bridge over the Medeweye between Rochester and Strode, by survey of John de Colecum, John Philipot and John Neusom, knights, and Master Henry Yevole, stonemason, leviable from the smaller bridge until the larger be built, viz. 1d. from every horseman and a ½d. from every foot-passenger, as is now taken by watermen and boatmen from persons crossing, with a proviso that countrymen coming to market on Fridays shall be quit of the same until two hours after nine in the morning.

Renewed on account of the death of William Basyng[es], late master of the said work of Strode, because sealed in March last.

Aug. 24. Westminster. Inspecimus and confirmation, in favour of Edmund Stokes, esquire, of the patent (in French) of the king's sister, the duchess of Brittany.