Licence, for 40s., paid to the king by John Hulle, Nicholas Morton and Nicholas Shapwyk, for Martin de Ferrers to enfeoff them of the manors of Byrferes, co. Devon, and Trewhana, co. Cornwall, and the advowson of the church of Newton Ferers, held in chief as of the duchy of Cornwall by knight service as by fees Mortcyn, and to grant to them the reversion on the death of Matilda, the wife of Ivo Fitz Waryn, of the manor of Newton Ferers, held in like manner; and for the fees and reversioners to re-grant the premises in fee simple and in remainder, respectively, to the said Martin and Lena his wife, William de Pakington, clerk, William de Bryene and John Daumarle, knight, and the heirs of Martin; in consideration of the like grant, in which Walter Bachiler and Alexander Werthe, now deceased, were in the place of the said Nicholas Morton and Nicholas Shapwyk, not having taken effect owing to their death.

Grant to Michael de la Pole, knight, in order that he may grant them in fee simple to John Bacon, the king's secretary, of the following water and pieces of land belonging to the castle and lordship of Ewe, co. Suffolk, part of the queen's dower which by letters patent she has surrendered to the king, viz., a water called 'Akyngford ryver,' five pieces of meadow, containing four acres, and 26½ acres of pasture and land, arable and uncultivated, which William de Ufford, late earl of Suffolk, lord of Ewe, granted for a term of years to the said John; and the following pieces of land, viz., 'Burgh,' containing five acres, held by John Wyrght, 'Lemynghesled,' containing nine acres, held by Robert Bukke and Mariota Dype, 'Overgate,' containing two acres, held by Clement Dypro, a piece above 'Overgate,' containing an acre and a half, held by the said Robert, 'Waleys,' containing half an acre, held by William Coppyng, 'Bremslade,' containing five acres, held by the said Clement, a piece containing two acres, held by Adam atte Hache, another, containing two acres, held by the said Clement between John Dawe's and the said Adam's land, and a piece of pasture, containing 3½ acres, held by the said Robert; and licence for the said John to acquire the premises in fee simple, to erect a water-mill on the said water, to enclose the said land, meadow and pasture and to build thereon.

By signet letter.

Presentation of Richard de Medford to the first portion of the church of Bysley, without cure, in the diocese of Worcester, void by the resignation of the king's clerk, John Bacon, in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the land and heir of the late earl of March.

By signet letter.

Grant, for life, as from Michaelmas last, to the king's kinsman, Peter de Courtenay, of 100l. yearly from the issues of the petty customs in the port of Bristol, in lieu of two sums of 50l. granted to him by letters patent of the king's father, dated 11 November, 1 Edward III, and 8 September, 4 Edward III, from that prince's lands and stannary in Cornwall, confirmed by letters patent of the king when prince, (all three casually lost) and letters patent of the king, now surrendered.

By p.s.

Restitution to the king's protection of Stephen de Condale, clerk, imprisoned in the Marshalsea, for not appearing to answer the king touching certain contempt and Richard de Bramdeston, clerk, touching certain damage done to him.