

1383.

Membrane 18d—cont.

serjeant-at-arms, and the mayor and bailiffs of Rye to restore to Daniel de Mary, Humphrey [S]pynell and John Carlo, merchants of Genoa, a ship of Genoa of which Antony Campora of Genoa is master, freighted at Romeneye and Lusshebon with goods of Genoese and other merchants friendly to the king, for Middleburgh in Seland, which was seized at sea as belonging to enemies and taken to Rye by certain ships of England of which Robert Parys is captain, and there detained. By C.

Nov. 4. Commission of oyer and terminer to William de Skypwyth, Robert de Westminster. Morton, Hugh de Ansleye, John de Gaytford and Edmund Claye, on complaint by the prioress of Brodeholm that William Wauterson, John in the Croft, John Henryson of Saxilby and others broke her close at Brodeholm, co. Nottingham, felled her trees and underwood, dug in her soil, carried off earth, trees, underwood and other goods, depastured her corn and grass, assaulted her servants, besieged and threatened her and her nuns in the priory with death. For 1 mark paid in the hanaper.

Nov. 14. Commission to Fulk Pembrugge and Thomas de Aston, knights, John Westminster. de Grendon the younger, John de Wolaston, Richard de Ruggeley and John Dampport to enquire touching the death of John de Huntynghdon at Acton Trussell, co. Stafford.

MEMBRANE 17d.

Nov. 7. Commission to Robert de Bekerton, serjeant-at-arms, to enquire touching Westminster. the complaint of Daniel de Mari, Humphrey [S]pynell and John de Carle, merchants of Genoa, that a certain ship of Genoa of which Matthew de Benaume is owner, laden with merchandise for Southampton, was by storm driven ashore at the entrance of the Wyke, in the county of Southampton, and its merchandise carried off by men of those parts; and to cause restitution to be made to Baptist Catoneo, merchant of Genoa, their attorney.

Oct. 20. Commission de wallis, fossatis, &c., to Thomas de Moubray, earl of Westminster. Nottingham, William de Wylughby, knight, William de Skipwyth, Robert de Plesyngton, John de Markham, William de Galby, clerk, Thomas de Burnham and Thomas de Tuttebury, in the isle of Axiholm, co. Lincoln, and between Bikersdyke, co. Nottingham, and the river Done, co. York.
Vacated because otherwise below.

1384.

March 2. The like to Roger de Fulthorp, Stephen del Fall, John de Aske, Thomas Westminster. de Saltmerssh and John de Kirkeby, in Howedeneshire, the wapentake of Herthill and between the Ouse and the Derwent, co. York.

1383.

Oct. 20. The like to Thomas de Moubray, earl of Nottingham, William de Westminster. Wylughby, knight, William de Skipwyth, Richard de Ravenser, clerk, William Rees, William de Galby, clerk, Thomas de Burnham and John de Rome, clerk, in the isle of Axiholm, co. Lincoln, and between Bykersdyke, co. Nottingham, and the river Done, co. York.

MEMBRANE 15d.

Nov. 14. Commission to James Belers, Roger Perewych, William Purfrey and Westminster. Thomas Frisby to enquire touching the death of Robert Endreby, clerk, at Endreby, co. Leicester.

Nov. 16. Commission of oyer and terminer to Edward Courteney, earl of Devon, Westminster. Robert Tresilian and John Cary, touching the construction of divers weirs, mills, pools, stakes and kiddels in the river Towe between Brastaple and Mollond, co. Devon, contrary to the statute of 25 Edward III.