
Inspectimus and confirmation, in favour of John Wynchestre, the abbot, and the convent of Quarre, of letters patent dated 3 February, 35 Edward III, inspecting and confirming, in favour of William, then abbot, (1) a charter of Henry II, dated at Winchester [Monasticon: vol. v. p. 318], and (2), an inquisition in a trial in the King's Bench in the reign of Edward I, upon the breach of a writing made by Isabella de Fortibus, late countess of Albemarle and Devon, lady of the Isle of Wight, to the then abbot, as by letters patent (sic) testified. [Charter Roll: 7 Edward I. No. 31.]

Licence, on the supplication of Hugh de Segrave, the late king having granted a third of the manor of Kempston, co. Bedford, called 'Brusselsbury,' to William Trussell, knight, in fee tail, and his daughter and heir, Margaret, who married Fulk Penbrugge, knight, having on her father's death entered thereon, for her and Fulk to grant all their estate therein to the said Hugh, to whom thereupon the king further grants an estate therein in fee simple. By signet letter.

Membrane 36.

Exemption, for life, of Edmund Filz Herberd, knight, from being put on assizes, attainders, juries or recognisances, and from being made mayor, sheriff, escheator, coroner, collector, taxor or assessor of a subsidy, leader, trier or arrayer of men-at-arms, hobelers or archers, or other minister of the king, against his will. By signet letter.

Appointment of John Organ and Walter Ranf to levy and collect, as from 2 December last, in the port of London and all others thence on either bank of the Thames as far as Gravesende and Tillebury inclusive, the subsidy recently granted by the Lords and Commons of 2s. a tun on wine imported, 6d. a pound on all merchandise, including woolen cloth, exported and imported, in addition to the customs and subsidies heretofore due, except wools, hides and wool-fells, from 21 May, 5 Richard II., until Michaelmas next; and to deliver the moneys arising therefrom to Henry de Percy, earl of Northumberland, admiral of the fleet in the north, to take order according to the advice of the Council for keeping the sea in those parts. By C.

The like of the following as collectors in the places named:

Thomas Drew and John Grantham in Lenne and all ports thence as far as Blakeneye on the one side and Wysbech on the other.

William de Spaigne and William Thymmelby in Boston and all ports thence as far as Grymesby on the one side and Wysbech inclusively on the other.

Thomas Waley and Geoffrey Starlyng in Ipswich and all ports thence as far as Tillebury.

Alexander Fastoff and John Elys in Great Yarmouth and all ports thence as far as Ipswich on the one side and Blakeney inclusively on the other.

Robert de Torkeley and John de Colthorp in Kyngeston-upon-Hull and all ports as far as Grymesby inclusively on the one side and Scardeburgh on the other.