1384. Revocation of protection with clause voluntus for one year, granted 24 November to Andrew Scot, knight, as going to Brittany on the king's service in the company of Thomas de Percy, knight, captain of Brest castle, on testimony that he has not gone.

Feb. 28. Westminster. Appointment of Walter de Leycestre, the king’s serjeant-at-arms, and Gilbert Mannfeld, citizen and merchant of London, to superintend, according to the commission to Edward Courteney, earl of Devon, the king’s admiral in the West, William Botreux, William Hasthorp, sheriff of Devon, John Bevyle, Humphrey Passour, mayor of Plymouth, Maurice Bert, Ralph Thorpe, William Bourewe, and Walter Jay, the arrest of the goods and prisoners recently driven into that port by a storm, and to receive the same from the said persons, place them in safe custody, and dispose of them as directed by the king and Council, certifying all their proceedings herein.

March 1. Westminster. Appointment of the sub-prior of St. Mary’s, Walsyngham, to the custody of that priory where, as the king is informed on behalf of his kinsman Roger, son and heir of Edmund de Mortuo Mari, late earl of March, a minor, of whose patronage it is, divers contentions have arisen between the sub-prior and prior, who is destitute to obtain the position of abbot therein, and to that end expends its revenues and possessions wastefully.

March 2. Westminster. Grant, for life, to William de Norton, in lieu of the six cartloads of underwood yearly from the king’s park of Coventry granted to him 23 October, 2 Richard II., of 18s. 4d. yearly from the profits of the park; at his supplication on becoming blind.

Feb. 28. Westminster. Pardon, at the supplication of John Verdon, esquire of the king’s brother John de Holand, to John son of Robert Geoffry of Holne, co. Huntingdon, for the death of William Prestman of the same place, killed on Wednesday after the Annunciation, 5 Richard II.

March 3. Westminster. Protection, for a quarter of a year, dating from the time when he arrives in England, for Robert, archbishop of Dublin, coming to the king and Council to inform them touching certain matters of advantage to the king and to prosecute business of importance to himself and his see, and for his clerks, household, servants, etc.; and none of his revenues in Ireland are to be seized into the king’s hands on account of his absence, notwithstanding any ordinance touching non-residence.

March 5. Westminster. Mandate to the mayor and aldermen of London to make public proclamation, for the public good and benefit of the magnates and other faithful lieges of the king resident in London and repairing thereto, that all foreigners and strangers of all parts in friendship with the king may freely come thereto by land and water with fish and other victuals, and no one, under pain of forfeiting all they can forfeit, is to hinder them from so coming and going.

March 4. Westminster. Presentation of Robert Shawe, vicar of Uphaven, in the diocese of Salisbury, to the church of Cliftonworth, in the diocese of Bath and Wells, in the king’s gift by reason of the alien priory of Montacute being in his hands on account of the war with France; on an exchange with Thomas More.

March 1. Westminster. Insperimus and confirmation, at the request of Henry, abbot of Revesby, and the convent there, who have acquired the manor hereinafter named, of a charter dated at Chertham, 12 June, 30 Edward I., being a grant to Robert de Bavent, in fee, of a weekly market and yearly fair in his manor of Maron, and free warren in his demesnes of Maron, Ballysbys and Wyneby, co. Lincoln.

For 1 mark paid in the hanaper.
