1384.

July 5. Pardon to Nicholas Pychard, brother of Richard Pychard, for the death of Westminster. Thomas Goddyng, killed before 15 January, 42 Edward III, as the king is informed that he killed him in self-defence.

July 7. Pardon, at the instance of queen Anne, to Robert Ever, indicted for having on Saturday before Ascension Day, 5 Richard II, robbed John Laverok of Chesterfield of a black horse with saddle and bridle, value 26s. 8d., in a place called 'Arkenlane,' and there and then ravished and abducted Joan Allik of Chesterfield and stolen her goods, and on Friday the feast of St. Lucy in the same year robbed Hugh Drapur of Chesterfield in Bollessovereale of 30l., nine woolen cloths, value 100s., and a horse, with saddle, bridle, girdle and purse, value 40s., and for having on Wednesday before Michaelmas, 6 Richard II, broken Nottingham gaol.

By signet letter.

July 10. Pardon, for 6s. 8d. paid by him to the king, to Nicholass Clyffe for acquiring in fee simple from John Walker, and entering on, without licence, a messuage and a piece of land containing an acre in Wighton, hold in chief, and restitution of the premises as acquired.

Membrane 41.

June 22. Grant, in favour of the prior and convent of St. Mary's, Lanthony by Gloucester, who have lands in Ireland, where one or two of their canons continually reside, that the prior may remain in England, notwithstanding the late ordinance in Parliament, and that his proctors in Ireland may freely sell his tithes, portions, fruits, and other goods, on condition that they sustain the burdens and pay the subsidies necessary for the war there as other religions, and that they may export the same into England. By C. S.

June 26. Licence, for 20l. paid in the hanaper by the prior of Bruton, for the alienation in mortmain by William Barwe and William Brewere of four messuages, one toft, one carucate of land, twelve acres of meadow, ten of pasture and four of wood, and 12s. rent in Bruton and Brumham to the prior and convent of Bruton, for finding a light to burn continually before the high altar in the church of St. Mary, Bruton.

June 22. Pardon, at the request of queen Anne, to John Kymburley of Cately, co. Leicester, for all felonies by him committed before 14 December, 5 Richard II, except treasons, murders and rapes, of outlawry, if any, and remission of any fines &c. due to the king therefor.

Renewed because sealed by K. in Parl. 2 November last.

July 5. The like to William, the personsyman of Fledburgh, alias William Wynter of Chestunt, co. Hertford.

Renewed because sealed by p.s. 25 November, 7 Richard II.

June 28. Licence, for 5 marks paid to the king by his kinsman, Robert de Vee, earl of Oxford, for William de Cheshale, knight, to grant a toft, 66 acres of land, half an acre of meadow, 30s. rent and six customary tenants in Fordham, co. Cambridge, and a moiety of the manor of Great Sampford, co. Essex, held in chief, to the said earl, Walter Fitz Watier, knight, John Hankewode the elder, Roger Keteryche, John son of William Durward and Reginald, parson of Northemflete, in fee simple.

June 30. Grant, for life, to John de Holand, the king's brother, to whom the king lately granted inter alia the lordship of Hopedale in Wales, and who now...