1384.
Westminster.
Aug. 24.

Membrane 28—cont.

Inspeximus and confirmation, in favour of Simon Porter, of letters patent (in French) of Margaret Mareschall, countess of Norfolk, dated at Framlingham castle, 6 January, 6 Richard II. being a grant to him, in fee simple, of a place and garden in her town of Framlingham of the castle, formerly held by John Pulton, escheated to the said countess.

For $\frac{1}{2}$ mark paid in the hamaper.

MEMBRANE 27.

July 21.
Westminster.

Presentation of John Vavasour, parson of Chepyng Ongre, in the diocese of London, to the church of Little Stanbrig, in the same diocese, in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the land and heir of Edmund Mortimer, earl of March; on an exchange with William Stotvill.

July 27.
Windsor.

Licence, at the supplication of the king's brother, John de Holand, for Robert de Hereford alias Robert Loveyn, knight, who is busy in the said John's service, to receive the issues of his lands and tenements in Ireland during his absence from that country, so long as he continues in his service, notwithstanding any statute or ordinance to the contrary. By signet letter.

Aug. 4.
Westminster.

Protection, with clause volumus, until Michaelmas, for John Eston of London, draper; but he is not hereby exempt from pleas of debt. By K.

July 31.
Windsor Castle.

Grant, for life, to William Harwell, one of the yeomen of the chamber, of the office of keeping the king's beds and furniture (armature) in Windsor castle, receiving therefor 6d. daily wages and 3d. daily for a groom under him out of the issues and revenues of the castle. By signet letter.

Mandate in pursuance to the constable or receiver of the castle.

July 26.
Westminster.

Inspeximus and confirmation, with enlargement as below, of letters patent (in French) of Joan, princess of Wales, dated at her castle of Wallingford, 30 June, 8 Richard II. being a grant for her life (which the king hereby enlarges into a grant for life) to Richard Stury of the constableship of the castle of Lampadervaine in South Wales, with 100 marks yearly therefor, viz. 50 marks from the profits of the castle, town and lordship there, and 50 marks at the exchequer of Kaermeryn; Thomas Priteyn, knight, who, by grant of Edward, late prince of Wales, had the custody of the said castle with 100 marks yearly therefrom, having, with the king's assent, received a grant by the said Joan, in exchange therefor, of the like amount from the fee farm of Coventry, part of her dower. By p.s.

Aug. 5.
Westminster.

Pardon to John de Nedderton of the county of Northumberland for the death of Richard Crak' of the same county, killed on Sunday before the Invention of the Cross, 6 Richard II. in the open field of Hereford (in campo de Hereford).

Aug. 4.
Westminster.

Pardon, at the supplication of the king's kinsman, Aubrey de Veer, to William Whipes, servant of John Malore, parson of Estwode, who with John Burre, parochial chaplain of the church of Estwode, has been appealed by Matilda, late the wife of John Fullere of Great Shobury, for that they (as she complained at Sutcherche before Thomas Beaun, coroner of the liberty of the hundred of Rocheford, on Saturday before St. George, 6 Richard II.) with four persons unknown, by night came to her close at Great Shobury, on Wednesday before the said feast, broke it, ravished her outside her house there, put her on a horse to abduct her, and, because she would not sit or lie upon it, beat her, brought her back into her house and threatened her that if she would not marry him they would immediately kill her, made her promise and compelled her to go to bed with him, and for that he (the said