Grant, for life, in consideration of more than forty years' service to the late king and to the king in the wars, to Richard Pupplyngton, forester of Purbyk and one of the senior archers of the Crown, who has nothing to live upon, of 6d. daily, to be paid to him by the sheriff of Dorset as in the late reign.

By signet letter.

Whereas the king recently granted to his esquire Philip Walleweyn, usher (hostiario) of his chamber, the custody, for life, of the park of Asshehurst, with all the profits thereof save the deer for his wages, the fencing of the park and repair of the houses therein, in exchange for 100s. yearly which he previously had by the king's father's grant at the Exchequer of Carmardyn, he has now granted to the said Philip and Joan, his wife, the custody of the said park for the life of each and for one year after their death for the administration of their goods; they taking the deer to their own use and all other profits of the park without rendering aught for the aforesaid exchange.

By signet letter.

Inspeiximus and confirmation, in favour of the Friars Preachers of Bristol, of letters patent dated 11 February, 51 Edward III. inspecting and confirming letters patent dated 18 December, 17 Henry III. allowing them to make a water conduit from the spring called 'Pamwell,' which is from the king's barton at Bristol, to their house there.

For ½ mark paid in the hanaper.

Grant, in mortmain, to the prioret and convent of the monastery of Sisters Preachers, Dertford, of the manor of Massyngham, co. Norfolk, with the fairs, markets, waifs, strays and other liberties appurtenant thereto, whereof the king was lately enfeoffed by John Daventre, parson of Brom, Walter Barker, vicar of Kymerle, John Crauhsous, Edmund Lakyngheth and Richard Nooth, and further like grant to the same of the reversion a year after the death of Katharine Brouse, of the manor of Westwrotham and other lands in Westwrotham, Estwrotham and Elyngton, co. Norfolk, held by John Daventre, Walter Barker, Richard Nooth, John Snoryng and Stephen Loughman, for her life, and which reversion John Bacon, Henry Boglay, Thomas Godelake and John Appulton have granted to the king, all the premises being hereby granted to the said prioret and convent, for finding a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in a chapel newly built in the infirmary of their monastery, to support their infirm sisters and brethren, and to pray for the good estate of the king while living, for his soul after death, and for the souls of the founders and benefactors of the monastery.

By p.s.

Grant, for life, for her good service to the king and queen, to Joan de Molum, lady of Dunster, of 100l. yearly out of the issues of the stannary of Devon and Cornwall.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because the king granted to her the manor and hundred of Maxfield, in the county of Chester, 17 November, 9 Richard II.

Presentation of John de Drax to the church of Youghill, co. Cork, in the diocese of Cloyne.

By signet letter.

Grant, for life, to the king's clerk, John de Waltham, of the chapel of St. Leonard, Clynn, co. Flynt.

Mandate in pursuance to the justice of Chester.

Pardon to David de Eulowe, citizen of Chester, for all trespasses and misprisions whereof he is indicted.

By p.s.

Mandate to the king's lieutenant in Ireland and to his chancellor there not to grant any ratification of his estate to the present incumbent of the