Membrane 7—cont.

Dec. 5. Westminster. Philip Darcy, knight, staying in England, has letters nominating Robert Morecote, clerk, and William Sellyok his attorneys in Ireland for one year.

Dec. 4. Westminster. Hugh le Despenser, knight, staying in England, has letters nominating John Hamond, clerk, and John Elys his attorneys in Ireland for one year.

Dec. 8. Westminster. Power (as heretofore granted to the archbishop of Canterbury) for Alexander, archbishop of York, and his suffragans in their dioceses, to arrest and imprison all maintainers or preachers of conclusions contrary to sound doctrine and subversive of the Catholic faith, which have been condemned by Holy Church, some as heresies, others as errors, after good and mature deliberation by the common council of the archbishop of Canterbury, his suffragans, doctors in theology, and clerks learned in the Scriptures. All the king's heges are prohibited, under pain of forfeiting all they can forfeit, from aiding them, and are to obey the archbishop, his suffragans and their ministers in the execution hereof, so that due and open proclamation against these conclusions and their maintainers may be made without disturbance.
