

8 RICHARD II.—PART II.

MEMBRANE 45.

1384.

Dec. 22.
Westminster.

Grant, for life, to queen Anne—as from Michaelmas last, upon her surrendering letters patent [dated 24 May and 12 June, 5 Richard II. (pp. 125-127) and 22 November, 6 Richard II. (p. 203)], which are recited, granting to her inter alia the following sums and custody of lands which she hereby surrenders to the king, viz., 25*l.* a year from the fee farm of the manor of Waldegrave, 220 marks a year from the ancient custom of the port of Kyngeston-upon-Hull, the custody of the lands late of Edmund de Stonore, 345*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.* and 200*l.* a year from the great customs of the ports of London and Hull, respectively, 33*l.* 21¾*d.* a year from the subsidy of cloth in London and 82*l.* 14*s.* 0½*d.* a year, part of 250*l.* from the great customs of the port of Boston—of the county and lordship of Richemond, which the late king granted to John, duke of Brittany and Joan his wife, the king's sister, now deceased, and which for the duke's adherence to France is forfeited, and the manor of Gedyngton, co. Northants, together amounting to the yearly value of 1,000*l.* in lieu of the surrender aforesaid; and further grant to the queen of the residue of the castles, manors, etc., contained in the said letters patent now surrendered. By K.
