1385. Membrane 25—cont.

have and enjoy all the said liberties as granted to them and enjoyed until the said revocation, and they are to render to the king according to the rate heretofore.

By p.s. [3545, W.]

Exemption, for life, of John Houton, citizen of London, from being put on assizes, juries or recognisances, and from being made mayor, sheriff, escheator, coroner, collector of moneys granted to the king, or other bailiff or minister of the king, against his will.

By p.s.

Licence for Nicholas de Parys to grant his manor of Castrogwyth and all his lands and tenements in North Wales held in chief to the king's clerks, John de Waltham, Richard de Medford, John Wodehouse, John de Lincoln [ia] and John de Bentlee, in fee simple, to the end that they may grant the same in fee to any persons whom they please.

By signet letter.

Grant, during his minority, to John son and heir of Thomas Roos of Hamelake of two thirds of all the knights' fees and advowsons of churches whereof his father died seised in his demesne as of fee.

By p.s.

Feb. 27. Westminster.

William Murrers, knight, staying in England, has letters nominating Thomas Pyke, of Jowell, and Thomas Herbeck his attorneys in Ireland for one year.

John de Waltham, clerk, received the attorneys.

March 1. Westminster.

Pardon, for 10 marks paid to the king by Thomas de Sekyndon, parson of Bleechyngleye, to the said Thomas, Richard de Sekyndon, parson of Onlton, and John Sekyndon, of their trespass in acquiring in fee simple and enter ing on, without licence, an acre of land in Kyngesmpton, and a moiety of the advowson of its church, from Richard de Horthull, knight, tenant in chief, and grant to them of the premises as acquired.

Licence, for 10d. paid to the king by the prior and convent of Weybrigge, for the alienation in mortmain to them by Margaret Mareschall, countess of Norfolk, John Eyr, clerk, John de Staverton and Edmund de Lakynghithe, of a messuage, ninety-two acres of land and 3s. rent in Southbirlingham, Lyngwode, Northbirlingham, Ooxe, Bokenhamferie and Boyton, and the advowson of the church of Lyngwode, not held in chief, to pray for the soul of Anne, late countess of Pembroke, and the souls of their benefactors and others.

March 8. Westminster.

Presentation of John Stubley to the church of St. John, Stamford, in the diocese of Lincoln, void by the resignation of Adam de Horsleye and in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien priory of St. Fremont being in his hands on account of the war with France.

March 8. Westminster.

Presentation of Matthew de Horbury to the vicarage of Bures in the diocese of Norwich, void by the resignation of John de Stubleye and in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien priory of Stokes being in his hands on account of the war with France.

March 7. Westminster.

Pardon, in consideration of their poverty and long suit in the king's court, to John Pecke and Lucy, his wife, for aiding and abetting the murder at Possewyk of John Kyng of Possewyk, in the parish of Whitebourne, by John Blake of Mayesmore, co. Gloucester, and Richard Baskervyl, of the county of Salop, on Friday before the translation of St. Thomas of Hereford, 6 Richard II. whereby they were indicted, and of any consequent outlawry and waiver; and further, restitution to them of their forfeited goods and chattels.

By signet letter.

Revocation of protection with clause volumus for one year, granted 16 January to Robert Aleyn of London, knight, as going to Portugal on the